Welcome

Thank you for showing an interest in the QAM Corporate Taxation role. The CIOT is an educational charity and the leading professional body in the UK for tax advisers dealing with all aspects of taxation. If successful, you will be joining a dedicated team of staff and volunteers who ensure that we continue to meet our primary purpose of promoting education in taxation. Our key aim is to achieve a more efficient and less complex tax system for all, and you will see from our annual reports that we do this through a wide range of activities.

At the CIOT our vision is: to remain the leading body for taxation professionals in the United Kingdom, serving the public interest through the pursuit of excellence and with integrity, and we're looking for people who are excited about joining us on our journey. To help us achieve our vision we're looking for exceptional people who live our values and behaviours and who can inspire others; embrace change; deliver results and keep it simple.

We live by our values which are:

Ethical - We act with integrity, promoting high ethical standards and accepting accountability for our actions.

Collaborative - We value working constructively with stakeholders to achieve our goals.

Inclusive - We welcome, respect, and value everyone and actively consider how to be accessible.

Empowering - We encourage and enable personal growth and seize opportunities.

Progressive - We are future focused; constantly learning and driving improvements that deliver enhanced service excellence.

Committed - We are focused on and dedicated to the consistent delivery of our charitable objectives and services.

We know that an inclusive environment makes us more accessible and ensures we attract, engage, promote, and retain exceptional people. We welcome applications from all individuals regardless of age, gender/gender identity, sexual orientation, ethnicity/nationality, disability, or military service and welcome those who have taken career breaks. We will consider flexible working arrangements or home working arrangements for any of our roles and offer workplace accommodations to ensure you have what you need to effectively deliver in your role.

We're an organisation which was founded by ordinary people who were dedicated to making tax as simple as possible for the public and providing qualifications that are open to all. Our members and volunteers come together to help each other get the most from their Professional Bodies and enhance their future careers. If you come to work here at the CIOT, you'll be part of that. Part of something a bit different. And something really quite special.

What's more, we have a strong ethic of care for each other and our members. We recognise that our employees feel most appreciated when their thoughts and values are respected and considered. We're committed to creating a culture that recognises and truly values our individual differences and identities. So, if you'd like to be a part of an inclusive workplace where you can be yourself, where your talents are nurtured, and you feel empowered to contribute, then please apply.

Helen Whiteman

Chief Executive, CIOT

About the CIOT

The CIOT is the leading body in the UK for taxation professionals dealing with all aspects of taxation. Our primary purpose is to promote education in taxation. One of our key aims is to achieve a more efficient and less complex tax system for all. Our comments and recommendations on tax issues are made solely in order to achieve this aim; we are an entirely apolitical organisation. Membership of the CIOT is by examination, nationally recognised as the gold standard of UK taxation education. We support our 20,000 members and 5,000 students throughout their tax careers, providing assistance through our London-based head office and network of 35 branches. The CIOT is a registered charity, number 1037771, a chartered corporation and a regulatory body for the purposes of Anti-Money Laundering supervision of tax practitioners.

The CIOT is managed by its chief executive and directors, under the strategic guidance of the Council. The CIOT is a Chartered corporation established under Royal Charter. Its governing documents comprise the Charter, Byelaws, Member Regulations and Council Regulations. The CIOT does not raise funds through asking for public donations in any form.

Role description

Job Purpose

To be a vital part of the quality control process for the CIOT examinations taking responsibility for a particular set of CIOT examination papers. The allocation of papers for this role will be as follows:

	QAM - Corporation Tax
Awareness	Corporation Tax
Advanced Technical	Taxation of Larger Companies and Groups
Application & Professional Skills	Taxation of Larger Companies and Groups

Operating Environment

You will work within the Education Team to ensure that the Corporation Tax papers of the CTA are available for candidates to sit twice a year and that they are of good quality, technically accurate and fair and that the marking of these is fair and timely.

Framework & Boundaries

To ensure the CTA exam Corporation Tax questions are at the appropriate standard and are fair and fit for purpose and therefore attractive to employers and individuals. To work with the examiners in your team, who are contractors, to ensure timely delivery of exams/markings. To play a part in the recruitment vetting process for new Corporation tax contractor examiners and their training.

Key accountabilities

- Attendance at the annual examiners' meeting, if one is held, and organising the examiners' meeting for your own team.
- In conjunction with the Chief Examiner, make decisions regarding examiner appointments and removals.
- Mentoring the examination team, particularly new examiners.
- Controlling the timely progress of their examinations, chasing and supporting examiners as required.
- Liaising with the Chief Examiner and updating on the progress of draft questions.
- Participating in conference calls organised by the Chief Examiner.
- Sitting draft examination papers in the required time and feeding back comments to the examiners.
- Undertaking a detailed technical review of the draft questions and answers as well as considering whether the questions are "good" questions.
- Moderating a small sample of scripts before marking gets fully underway and then speaking to the examiners.
- Once candidates' scripts have been marked, undertaking a first moderation of 10% of the scripts (or 10 scripts if less than 100 scripts in total) to ensure that marking has been fair and accurate. Followed by a second moderation of borderline scripts. (An additional fee per script is payable for moderation.)
- Assistance in the completion of the session including the production of final answers and examiner comments.
- Managing the response to the tutorial bodies to pass to the Chief Examiner.
- Pro-actively making recommendations to improve the examination process.
- Considering the syllabus for their papers and making recommendations for updates.
- Attendance at occasional Examinations Committee meetings if requested.
- Communicate promptly with the full-time staff in the Education Team as necessary.

Skills needed to fulfil the role

Knowledge and experience

- Experience of working in an education/examination environment

Functional/technical skills

- CTA qualified
- Strong and demonstrable technical skills in the appropriate area of tax right across the syllabus for the allocated papers
- Competent in MS Office packages (e.g. Word)

Interpersonal and work management Skills

- Sufficiency and flexibility of available time for the role. The work will not be evenly spread and a prompt response is needed on numerous aspects.
- Ability to work as a part of a team. You will be reviewing the work of examiners and it is therefore important that you are able to work with them and encourage them through the review process. You will need to work with others within the CLOT also and will need to share the vision that we work together to improve the examination process.
- An enquiring mind and strong communication skills. Whilst our questions may be demanding, they must also be clear, unambiguous and fair. You will need to be able consider whether draft questions can be misinterpreted and suggest changes to improve the style and clarity of the questions.
- Excellent time management skills. There is a tight timetable for the exam process and it is vital that the QAMs have excellent time management skills and are able to set an example to others by keeping to the timetable.
- Methodical in approach with excellent attention to detail.

Guidance notes for applicants

Thank you for considering working with us. These notes are designed to help you through our application process.

However, if you have any questions regarding the process that are not covered here, please do not hesitate to contact Sharon Jepson (HR Associate) at sjepson@ciot.org.uk for advice.

The application deadline is 31 January 2026 at 5pm.

You can apply by submitting a covering letter and up-to-date CV via email to Sharon. Your covering letter should make it clear how your skills and experience match those described in this pack.

If you wish to learn more about the role before applying, you may contact Vicky Purtil (Director of Education) at vpurtil@ciot.org.uk. This will not prejudice your application in any way.

If you do not hear from us within two weeks of applying, this means that you have not been shortlisted on this occasion. Failure to be shortlisted for one role does not bar you from applying for others when they are advertised. This post will be resourced through a one-stage interview process.

If you are invited to interview you must confirm your attendance by the deadline stated in the invitation email. If you do not do so we will assume you are no longer interested.

If you have a disability and require special arrangements to be made please notify us as soon as you are shortlisted so we can try to accommodate your needs.

You will be told during the interview when you may expect to hear the outcome.

Although we appreciate the time and effort that goes into applying for a post with us, we do not give individual feedback on applications or interview performance.

Successful candidates will be required to provide their original qualifications, proof of the right to work in the UK and the details of two referees before they commence employment.

We look forward to receiving your application.
