

The logo for ADIT (Association of Directors of International Taxation) features the letters 'ADIT' in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The letters are centered between two horizontal white lines, one above and one below.

Chartered Institute of Taxation.

Our new Pillar Two Award

In the post-BEPS environment, Pillar Two promises to fundamentally reshape how multinational groups are taxed across jurisdictions, with profound implications for states, taxpayers and advisers alike.

The CIOT's cutting edge Pillar Two Award, a standalone spin-off of our globally popular ADIT international tax programme, will guide tax professionals in countries around the world on Pillar Two's key concepts and their practical implementation.

Register today and begin your Pillar Two journey

www.tax.org.uk/pillar-two

The Pillar Two Award is designed for new and experienced international tax professionals alike. Whether you're advising clients, ensuring compliance on behalf of a multinational enterprise, or developing tax policy for government, it will help you to:

- Build your knowledge of the Pillar Two rules, from GloBE to IIR to UTPR!
- Gain confidence in applying the rules to real-world situations
- Consider the wider administrative, economic and geopolitical landscape as the Pillar Two regime is rolled out.

Straightforward and accessible learning

- Assessed by a single exam, with a variety of practical and conceptual questions
- Approximately 100 hours of total learning time, depending on your pre-existing knowledge level
- Courses and exams available online, with two exam sittings each year
- Annual syllabus update, reflecting the dynamic nature of the Pillar Two discourse.

Find out more

www.tax.org.uk/pillar-two

