

LOGISTICS UPDATE

- Container and space shortage continue to intensify especially out of Asia and Brazil.
- Carriers have started to impose rate increases and surcharges to cope with congestion at ports.
- Most origins are having success with on ground transportation from mills and warehouses to ports. However, the crisis in Colombia has brought transportation to a standstill in most parts of the country. Suppliers are unable to deliver coffee to the ports.
- Domestic movement within Europe and US is unhindered. US is still experiencing unusually high rates for trucking due on-going driver shortage.
- Sucafina continues to work with shipping lines and all our domestic transport partners on new strategies to keep the flow of coffee from farm to roasters.
