Sibelco continues long-term support for community cricket at Bovey Tracey

Sibelco is continuing its long-standing support for community cricket by sponsoring the playing kit at Bovey Tracey Cricket Club.

The sponsorship forms part of the company's wider commitment to supporting community organisations, grassroots sport and local initiatives across South Devon, where each year it provides financial support and practical assistance to dozens of clubs, schools, charities and community groups.

Founded in 1850, Bovey Tracey Cricket Club is one of Devon's oldest cricket clubs and today provides opportunities for people of all ages and abilities to enjoy the game. Alongside four senior teams playing in the Devon Cricket League, the club also runs women's cricket and has a thriving junior section of nine teams from U11s to U19s, helping make the sport accessible to players from across the local community.

The club has an impressive membership of more than 650 and says support from local businesses plays a vital role in helping keep cricket affordable and accessible for everyone who wants to take part.

Sibelco has sponsored the club for more than a decade, reflecting its long-term support for the communities around its South Devon operations. Sibelco sponsors all the men's senior team kit - both whites, as worn by the 3rd & 4th XIs, and coloured kit worn by the 1st & 2nd XIs.

Michael Treneer, Local Estates Manager for Sibelco, said: "Supporting local organisations is an important part of our commitment to the communities where we operate.

"Bovey Tracey Cricket Club has been bringing people together through sport for generations and provides opportunities for players of all ages and abilities to learn the game and enjoy their cricket.

"We are delighted to continue our support and wish everyone at the club every success this season and into the future."

Tina England, Chair, Bovey Tracey Cricket Club, said: "Bovey Tracey Cricket Club is incredibly grateful for Sibelco's continued support, which has helped our club thrive and grow to a membership of more than 650.

"Having local businesses like Sibelco invest in community sport enables us to keep cricket affordable and accessible for everyone. We offer opportunities for men and women, girls and boys to enjoy cricket, from five-year-olds joining our All Stars programme, to 11 junior teams and six senior teams, to Walking Cricket for the over-50s. We provide a social hub in the community bringing together families and people of all ages. Sibelco has been a valued partner for many years, and we are delighted to have their continued backing."
