1. About

Venues NSW is constituted by the Sporting Venues Authorities Act 2008 as a corporation with the corporate name of Venues NSW and as a NSW Government agency.

Venues NSW is a major employment, tourism, social and economic engine of growth for NSW and Australia. The Venues NSW network comprises more than $4bn of public community assets, which host some 500 major sport and entertainment events and attract upwards of five million attendees each year.

In Sydney, Venues NSW owns and operates the Sydney Cricket Ground and Allianz Stadium in Moore Park, Accor Stadium at Sydney Olympic Park and CommBank Stadium in Parramatta.

In the Illawarra, Venues NSW owns and operates WIN Stadium and WIN Entertainment Centre, both of which are significant contributors to the region's visitor economy.

In the Hunter, Venues NSW owns and operates McDonald Jones Stadium, and the Newcastle Entertainment Centre and Showground which service much of northern and north-west NSW. In recent years, Venues NSW has re-established McDonald Jones Stadium as a concert venue for international artists, with visits by Sir Elton John, Sir Paul McCartney and P!NK.
