LOCATION

Cardross is a scenic village in Argyll and Bute, located on the north side of the Firth of Clyde, between Dumbarton and Helensburgh. It is known for its historic significance, peaceful residential character, and beautiful landscapes. Lies roughly halfway between Dumbarton and Helensburgh.

Situated on the northern shore of the River Clyde with lush greenery and views across the water.

The Inn sits in the heart of Cardross across from Cardross Golf Club.

DESCRIPTION

A small traditional Scottish village Inn on Main Road, featuring a modest rural exterior and a sympathetically modernised interior.

Its scale of five rooms, ground-level entrance, beer garden, and quaint frontage reflect the architectural character typical of village Inns in Argyll & Bute.

The property is detached and of traditional stone construction laid under a pitched and slate roof of various levels. The public areas are located on the ground floor whilst the letting bedrooms are located on the first floor. The original building has been extended at various intervals.

INTERNAL DETAILS

The bar and restaurant at the Cardross Inn are very much an example of a cosy traditional Scottish Inn serving modern European and Scottish cuisine, with a strong emphasis on local fresh ingredients. The bar has a selection of Malts, ales and beers served in traditional but modern bar area.

Throughout the Inn there has been much thought and design put in, to creating a first class venue.

THE OPPORTUNITY

The Cardross Inn offers a restaurant that serves modern European and Scottish cuisine with a strong focus on local fresh produce covering breakfast, lunch, dinner, and afternoon teas.

The Inn already positions itself as a local hub with sports, live music, and a busy social environment. Being close to the neighbouring cemetery the Inn is also holds funeral gatherings.

Given the Inn's cosy rooms, strong food offering, and charming Cardross location, opportunities include:

- Micro weddings (15–40 guests)
- Private dining for birthdays/anniversaries
- Small corporate retreats using the boutique rooms
- Wine or whisky corporate hospitality packages and much more

GROUND FLOOR

The restaurant is designed in three distinct parts offering around 70 covers and described as a “charming neighbourhood gem” offering a warm, inviting dining experience.

The bar is a warm inviting and community oriented Scottish pub space with quality whiskies and cocktails, regular entertainment, and a friendly local atmosphere, which makes it perfect for relaxing after exploring Cardross or enjoying a drink alongside the gastropub dining experience.

A well appointed servery with free-standing circular tables surrounded by high stools and chairs, as well as selected wall seating. The bar area leads to the open plan games room with pool table and bandit.

LETTING ACCOMMODATION

Located on the first floor, the Cardross Inn offers five boutique letting bedrooms, designed to provide a cosy, modern, and comfortable stay in the heart of Cardross.

These rooms combine traditional Scottish charm with contemporary features.

- King size beds (in most rooms)
- Flat screen TV
