LOCATION

The Percy Arms is situated in the heart of rural Northumberland, in the village of Chatton, with views out to the Cheviot hills. The property is located within close proximity to the A1, providing excellent access to Morpeth which is 37 miles south and Berwick Upon Tweed 20 miles to the north.

The coast is 15 miles to the east with the towns of Bamburgh and Seahouses, with the Northumberland National Park six miles to the west. There are seven golf courses within easy reach and many fine walks to be enjoyed in and around the village of Chatton itself, with elevated viewpoints over the surrounding countryside.

Being in close proximity to the spectacular coastline of the North East, National Park, historic Castles and Stately homes, The Percy Arms is the perfect place to explore everything the region has to offer.

DESCRIPTION

The Percy Arms is a large luxurious traditional pub hotel offering overnight stays and breaks, outstanding fresh and locally sourced food as well as handcrafted drinks.

With five exceptional bedrooms boasting ensuite unique country cottage styling and large super king sized beds, the Percy Arms has been decorated to a very high standard and is frequented by many locals and visitors to the area achieving excellent reviews on multiple websites.

The menus take inspiration from both rural and coastal surroundings, offering traditional homemade dishes striving to source ingredients as locally as possible. The food truly is worth travelling for. The fantastic team are trained in helping pair dishes with the appropriate drinks and fine wines.

The attractive stone building, was originally a Victorian coaching Inn and part of the Duke of Northumberland's estate, and is deceptively larger than its cottagey looks.
