LOCATION

Located in the vibrant town of Yeovil, near Somerset's southern border, The Great Lyde enjoys a prime position within a thriving residential community. With approximately 4,460 homes within a 1km radius and a town population exceeding 50,000, the pub benefits from a strong local customer base.

Yeovil is surrounded by picturesque countryside and offers a wide range of amenities and attractions. From shopping and theatre to the scenic Yeovil Country Park, there's something for everyone. The Great Lyde is known for its live music events, a thriving carvery business, and regular quiz nights that bring the community together.

DESCRIPTION

The Great Lyde is a public house, originally developed by the current owner around 40 years ago from a historic farmhouse. This substantial detached property is set on a generous plot of approximately 0.75 acres, featuring a grassed beer garden with 42 covers, a spacious trade patio with seating for another 40 guests, and a large customer car park accommodating c. 40 vehicles.

INTERNAL DETAILS

The building spans three levels basement, ground, and first floor. The ground floor offers two distinct trading areas: a restaurant (79 covers) with a bar servery and additional seating (30 covers), a sports bar complete with a skittle alley and bar servery.

Additional amenities on this level include two sets of ladies' and gentlemen's WCs, access WC, a large commercial kitchen, and ample storage areas.

OWNER'S ACCOMMODATION

Accessed via the restaurant area, a staircase leads to the owner's accommodation on the first floor. The current layout comprises five generously sized bedrooms, each suitable for a double bed, along with an office, a separate WC and bathroom, and a spacious open-plan living room and kitchen.

There is potential to reconfigure this space into two self-contained flats, subject to the necessary consents.

BUSINESS RATES

The current rateable value is £18,500. The owners accommodation also has a separate Council Tax assessment within Band C.

FIXTURES & FITTINGS

Trade fixtures and fittings will be included in the sale.
