DESCRIPTION

The Rabbit's Hole is a quirky speakeasy cocktail bar offering a distinctive, immersive drinking experience in a characterful basement setting. The business promotes itself around handcrafted cocktails and a "speak easy cocktail bar" concept, with a focus on atmosphere, discovery and cocktail theatre. Third-party venue listings describe the premises as an underground space with a bar area and lounge seating, suitable for private events, birthdays, office parties and group occasions, with capacity reported at up to 35 seated / 50 standing. The concept is further enhanced by an extensive cocktail offer, with listings referring to a signature menu and over 100–140 cocktail recipes, supporting its appeal as a specialist destination cocktail venue.

LOCATION

The Rabbit's Hole is situated at 168 Clerkenwell Road, London EC1R 5DD, within the heart of Clerkenwell, a well-established Central London district positioned between Holborn, Farringdon, Smithfield, Barbican and the City. The venue is approximately 0.3 miles from Chancery Lane Station, with Farringdon and Barbican also serving the wider area, and nearby bus routes running along Clerkenwell Road and surrounding streets. The location benefits from proximity to local attractions and demand generators including Smithfield Market, Exmouth Market, Clerkenwell Green, St John's Gate, the Barbican area and a dense mix of offices, restaurants, cafés and leisure venues.

THE OPPORTUNITY

The lease assignment offers an incoming operator the chance to take on an established, themed cocktail bar in a strong Central London trading location, with the benefit of a highly competitive rent of £10,000 per annum. The premises provide an attractive platform for a hands-on cocktail operator, events-led business, independent bar group or hospitality entrepreneur seeking a character venue with existing identity and private hire potential. With Clerkenwell's mix of office workers, residents, visitors, evening leisure trade and nearby destinations such as Farringdon, Smithfield and Exmouth Market, the opportunity lends itself to continued operation as a cocktail bar, enhanced private events activity, corporate bookings, themed nights or a refreshed evening-led hospitality concept.
