What we do

The Lincolnshire Recovery Partnership's IPS Employment Team uses a proven system that helps people in recovery find and maintain paid employment.

We work with you to understand your recruitment needs, match you with the right person, and offer ongoing support to make sure the placement works for everyone.

What's in it for your business?

We carefully match candidates to roles based on their interests and strengths, only recommending individuals who are genuinely motivated and ready to work for you.

Who are people in recovery?

The people we work with come from all walks of life - teachers, trades, managers, creatives and more. Each individual brings their unique strengths and experiences, ready to contribute meaningfully to your business.

Why it matters

Employment provides structure, purpose, and a renewed sense of worth. When local businesses get involved, we create a Lincolnshire where everyone has the chance to grow, succeed and contribute.
