GUIDANCE NOTE A: MEMBERSHIP

1 TYPES OF MEMBERS

TSSA has different types of members. In the Rule Book and Guidance Notes different arrangement sometimes apply to different types of members.

The different types are:

Ordinary members

Retired members

Honorary members

Apprentices and Trainees

Details of the definition, qualifications, rights and privileges of each type of member are set out in full in this Guidance Note.

The Executive Committee will, from time to time, determine subscription rates for Apprentices and Trainees and will decide what cash benefits are available to them. In the absence of such a decision, benefits will be available in proportion to the amount of subscription paid.

Members commencing a period of maternity leave will be placed and remain in free membership for the period of maternity leave. Their entitlement to benefits etc. will remain unaltered.

Members on long term sick leave who are no longer on full basic pay from their employers will have free membership during the period that they remain absent and in receipt of less than full basic pay. Their entitlement to benefits, etc, will remain unaltered.

Members who qualify for Unemployment Benefit under the terms of Guidance Note B will be allowed to continue their membership without payment of subscriptions or levies during the period in which they receive such benefit.

1.1 Ordinary members

Ordinary members pay a subscription as set out in Rule 4.3.1. They are referred to in the Rule Book as “members” or “ordinary members

1.2 Retired members

They are former members of TSSA who have retired from qualifying employment but have been re-admitted into membership by the Executive Committee.

GUIDANCE NOTES

The Executive Committee has discretion as to whether to re-admit a person as a Retired member.

Retired members will pay a weekly subscription of not less than one half of the weekly subscription payable by full rate members.

They are entitled, in proportion to the actual subscription paid, to Retirement Benefit under these Guidance Notes but will not be entitled to Death or Unemployment Benefit.

If Retired membership terminates, any entitlement to benefits will be calculated by reference to the length of membership as a Retired member up to and including the date Retired membership terminates.

Except as is otherwise provided by the rules and Guidance Notes, retired members will be treated as members for the purposes of these rules or for any statutory purposes.

See section 1.4 of this Guidance Note for the eligibility of a Retired member to hold Branch office or be a delegate to Annual Delegates Conference.

A Retired member is not eligible to be nominated, but may vote, in elections for the positions of General Secretary (see Rule 12.2), President, Treasurer or Executive Committee member (see Rule 9.2) or member of the Irish Committee (see Rule 15.1).

1.3 Retired Members holding office

Decided by

Retired members may hold Branch office as Branch Correspondence Secretary, Branch Organising Secretary, or any combined post incorporating the function of one or both of these positions.

Conf

Retired members will be eligible to be delegates to Annual Delegate Conference.

Conf

Conf

1.4 Honorary members

Honorary members are former members of TSSA who have retired from qualifying employment but have been re-admitted into membership by the Executive Committee out of appreciation for long and valuable services rendered.

The Executive Committee has discretion as to whether to re-admit a person as an Honorary member but will only re-admit where the relevant Branch or Branches have submitted a recommendation to that effect.

GUIDANCE NOTES

The Executive Committee also has discretion to admit non TSSA members as Honorary Members in recognition of extraordinary service rendered to the Association or its members.

They will make no contributions to, or receive any benefits from, TSSA Funds.

They will have the right to attend Branch meetings and to speak but not vote on Branch business.

They will not be eligible to hold office in TSSA except as branch auditors (BUT where such members are in a branch or Self Organised Group solely for Retired members they may speak and vote on any matters of the business of that branch or Self Organised Group and be eligible to hold office as an Officer, Organiser or Committee member of that Branch, or Self Organised Group or delegate to Divisional Council from that Branch.).

They will not be eligible to be elected as delegates to the Trades Union Congress, the Labour Party Annual Conference and similar national bodies.

They may, if they wish, apply to become Retired members in accordance with the Rules and Guidance Notes and if they become Retired members and later cease to be Retired members, they will revert to the status of Honorary members.

Reference to members does not include Honorary members except to the extent consistent with this Note.

An Honorary member is not eligible to be nominated, or vote, in elections for the positions of General Secretary (see Rule 12.2), President, Treasurer or Executive Committee member (see Rule 9.2) or member of the Irish Committee (see Rule 15.1).

2 APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

A person who qualifies under Rule 4.1 may apply to be a member of TSSA.

Applications must be made, by one of the methods prescribed by the Executive Committee, to any officer of TSSA or to Head Office.

Details of the methods of application will be set out in the TSSA's website, and can be obtained from Head Office.

If an applicant has already paid any money to TSSA when the applicant is rejected, that money will be refunded.

If an applicant is accepted, Membership will be treated as having started at the beginning of the week for which the first subscription was or is paid.

3 ARREARS OF SUBSCRIPTIONS

It will be the personal responsibility of each member to keep subscriptions up to date.

Cash benefits payable under these Rules will be paid only to members who:

- (1) are not suspended and
- (2) owe no subscriptions for any period prior to the current Financial Period. (See Rule 6.2(e) for Financial Periods).

A person's Membership will cease immediately if their subscriptions are twenty-six weeks in arrears, and they will have no further claim on TSSA funds.

A member expelled by the Executive Committee will likewise have no claim on TSSA funds. (See also Section 4 (termination of membership), and Rule 9.4.5 (Levies)).

4 SPECIAL CASES, TERMINATION, DATA PROTECTION

The Executive Committee may make arrangements with other organisations and/or persons for special terms for:

- (1) the transfer of members
- (2) the admission of such persons to membership in TSSA and may authorise any Branch to accept any persons qualified for membership in TSSA who desire to transfer from any other organisations on such special terms.

Despite anything in these Rules and Guidance Notes the Executive Committee may, on giving six weeks' notice in writing, terminate the membership of any member if necessary in order to comply with a decision of the Disputes Committee of the Trades Union Congress. In the event of membership being so terminated all monies paid to TSSA by the member concerned will be refunded and the member will have no claim on the funds of TSSA.

(See also Rule 4.3.3 and Section 3 of this Guidance Note for suspension and termination of membership for arrears of subscriptions.)

All TSSA members, regardless of type, agree to the processing of any personal data collected and maintained by TSSA concerning them (including data relating to the fact of membership). Such processing will only be carried on in accordance with such Data Protection Procedures as are approved from time to time by the Executive Committee.

GUIDANCE NOTE B: BENEFITS

1 PROTECTION, UNEMPLOYMENT, LEGAL AND DISPUTES BENEFITS

1.1 Protection Benefits – Unfair Treatment of Members

The Executive Committee may make payments to in accordance Rule 4.4.2.

The procedure in such cases is as follows:-

EC

- (1) The Member reports the matter to the Branch Secretary
- (2) The Branch Secretary calls a meeting of the Branch Committee
- (3) The Branch Committee investigates the matter and prepares a report
- (4) The Branch Secretary sends the report to Head Office
- (5) The Executive Committee considers the report and makes a decision as to what, if any, payment should be made, and whether the payment should be in a lump sum, or by instalments.

1.2 Unemployment Benefits – Dismissal and Short Time Working

If a member is dismissed in any ordinary way, or put on a short-time working arrangement under any emergency or exceptional circumstances, the member will inform the Branch Secretary, who will report the full facts to the General Secretary.

If the General Secretary is satisfied that payments should be made, the member will be entitled to Unemployment Benefit from TSSA for the period or periods for which no pay is received from employment and during which the member is registered as being available for full time employment.

Payments are made as follows:

- if an ordinary member
- £15.50 per week for eight weeks
- and £9.60 per week for a further six weeks

but in either case the member must have been a TSSA member for not less than 52 consecutive weeks and be up to date with subscription payments to qualify for this Benefit.

After receiving Unemployment Benefit for the full period allowed (14 weeks) a member will not be eligible to receive this benefit again until completion of a further 104 weeks' continuous membership counting from the date Unemployment Benefit ceased or, in the case of a member who relinquishes membership on completing the full period of benefit but subsequently rejoins, from the date upon which the member rejoins.

It must be proved beyond doubt that no misconduct or neglect of duty of any description caused the member to be out of employment.

These benefits will not be paid to a member leaving the qualifying employment voluntarily or by reason of ill-health, or to a member in receipt of Superannuation or pension allowance or ex gratia annuity, or of compensation for dismissal under any Compensation and Redundancy Arrangement, but the member may receive Retirement Benefit from TSSA in any such circumstances if qualified for the same under Section 4 Retirement Benefits.

1.3 Exceptional Grants

A Grant may be made by order of the Executive Committee in case of suspension, reduction in salary, or other unfair treatment, or exceptional circumstances arising in connection with a member's employment. Such grants will be at the absolute discretion of the Executive Committee. A grant will not ordinarily be made unless membership of TSSA has continued for not less than twenty-six consecutive weeks and the member is clear on the books. The Executive Committee will not however decline to give assistance in such a case until it has considered the recommendations (if any) of the Branch of which the applicant is a member.

1.4 Disputes Payments

In the event of any members becoming involved in a dispute with their employer which results in a stoppage of their work, the Executive Committee may, at their discretion and for such period as they may decide, make weekly payments to such members of such amounts as the Executive Committee may decide, providing the action of the members concerned has been approved by the Executive Committee in an official communication through the General Secretary.

The Executive Committee may grant to any such members who have dependent children under 16 years of age additional payments in respect of such children. The Executive Committee may also apply the provisions of this Guidance Note in the event of members becoming involved in or adversely affected by trade disputes in industries other than the one in which they are regularly employed, if such disputes result in a stoppage of their work with loss of pay.

2 DEATH AND DISABLEMENT BENEFITS

(a) On the death of a member, including for this purpose Retired Members with over twenty years' membership who have not taken their benefit, a Benefit payment of £500 may be made to the member's spouse, children, parent, parents, brother, sister, brothers, sisters or legal personal representative, or to the person nominated by the member.

(b) If a member dies as a result of an accident whilst:

- (1) on duty or
 - (2) travelling to and from duty in the course of qualifying employment or
 - (3) engaged on TSSA business
- a Benefit payment of £1,000 may be paid if such member was an ordinary member.

No payment will be made if the deceased member at the time of the accident was disqualified from benefit under Rule 4.3.3 and Section 3 (arrears of subscriptions) of Guidance Note A, or Rule 9.4.5 (levies). Subject to that, the benefit payment will be made at the discretion of the Executive Committee.

When a payment is made under this paragraph no death or disablement payment will be made under Paragraph (a).

(c) The Executive Committee's decision as to the person (or persons) entitled to receive payments under this Guidance Note will be final.

(d) Half the sums mentioned in Paragraph (a) will be payable to a member on the death of the member's spouse, but any such payment will be set off against future death benefits so as to reduce or extinguish the total amount which becomes payable under (a) at such member's death.

(e) Death benefit under this Guidance Note will only be payable if the death claim benefit form is signed by two Branch Officers and delivered to Head Office.

(f) A member who has to leave qualifying employment as a result of disablement arising from an accident:

- (1) sustained during the performance of the member's official duties or
 - (2) due to the member's employment
- and either then or at a later date terminates membership, will be entitled to Benefit in accordance with the scale set out in Section 4, Guidance Note B.

(g) Any member over sixteen years of age may nominate any person to receive any monies payable at the member's death under this Guidance Note, but must do so in writing. The nomination must be sent to the Head Office addressed to the General Secretary, who will send a written acknowledgement. A member may revoke or vary their nomination.

A sample form of nomination appears at Form 1, Guidance Note F. A copy of the form set out in Form 1, Guidance Note F is available from Head Office.

3 RETIREMENT BENEFITS

This Guidance Note sets out the circumstances in which a member can receive a payment under TSSA's retirement benefits scheme.

Payments will be made to ordinary members who:

- (1) have retired from qualifying employment and
- (2) did not retire due to a dismissal qualifying them for Unemployment Benefit and
- (3) are no longer a member of TSSA and
- (4) did not cease to be a member of TSSA as a result of death, or the reasons set out in Rule 4.3.3 and Section 3 (arrears of subscriptions) of Guidance Note A, or Rule 9.4.5 (levies).

The amount payable is based on years' membership. The table at Guidance Note F.2 shows what payment is due to an ordinary member after continuous membership of a varying number of years

The scales of benefit in this section of Guidance Note B will not apply retrospectively to former ordinary members or members paying the former full rate or part rate of subscriptions who have terminated their membership and drawn retirement benefit from their employer.

GUIDANCE NOTE G: GENERAL SECRETARY CODE OF CONDUCT

1. The General Secretary commits to upholding the highest values of the trade union movement including equality, fairness, justice, and dignity and respect for all, as well as to showing care and compassion to all the union's staff and members.
2. The General Secretary commits to centring members in their decision making – always seeking to act in members' best interests. In doing so, the General Secretary commits to upholding the highest standards of integrity, operating truthfully and never making decisions based in their own, their family, their friends' or close colleagues' interests.
3. The General Secretary commits to best endeavours to increase the diversity of the union's membership, particularly its activist members. In making this commitment, the General Secretary understands that institutional barriers to participation and activism, such as 'social drinking,' long hours, expectations of travel and male dominant behaviours, need to be dismantled.
4. The General Secretary understands the importance and profile of their role as a figurehead and advocate, not just for the TSSA, but for the union movement, and so commits to best endeavours of exemplar conduct in both public and private life.
5. The General Secretary commits to seeking, proactively and regularly, feedback from diverse groups – staff, members, volunteers and Executive Committee members – on their role modelling of these values and their operation of this Code of Conduct.
