1. Summary of our assessment

We have assessed that:

- Our variable mortgage range (including Standard Variable Rate (SVR)) continues to meet the needs, characteristics, and objectives of customers in the identified target market
- The intended distribution strategy remains appropriate for the target market.
- The product provides fair value to customers in the target market (i.e. the total benefits are proportionate to total costs).

2. Product characteristics & benefits

The variable mortgage products are designed to meet the needs of the target group below:

- To provide a solution to customers who are comfortable with fluctuating interest rates that are linked directly to Standard Variable Rate (SVR)
- To provide a solution to customers who are comfortable with fluctuating interest rates linked directly to the Bank of England Base Rate (BBR)
- To support customers who understand their monthly repayments may vary over the term of the mortgage however believe that interest rates will likely fall and therefore a variable product could offer the potential for lower monthly payments.
- To support customers who understand if they are on a product linked to our SVR, that if a Bank of England Base Rate change occurs, this will not directly impact the rate charged (albeit will be influenced over time) and similarly for those customers on a BBR product will not see a change in payment when our SVR is changed
- Available on loans up to 95% LTV
- Customers looking to purchase a new property or remortgage their existing mortgage to us
- Existing customers looking to product transfer, take further borrowing and/ or port their existing scheme onto a new property

The product features and criteria are designed to support these needs:

- Availability on new and existing homes (subject to LTV restrictions)
- Product fee on completion on selected products up to the max LTV

- All products allow overpayments of up to 10% of the capital balance annually without incurring Early Repayment Charges (the exception being where a product carries no Early Repayment Charges and where there is unlimited overpayments permitted)
- Regularly monthly over payment of £499.99 in addition to the overpayment allowance
- Early Repayment Charges (where applicable) if the borrower redeems the mortgage during the initial discounted period (subject to T&C's)
- Products are portable and can be transferred to the new property (subject to T&C's)
- At the end of the initial variable rate period, the rate will revert to our Society's Standard Variable Rate for the remainder of the term.

Full eligibility criteria can be accessed on our intermediary website via this link.

The Product is not designed for customers who:

- Are purchasing a property to let
- Are unable to demonstrate the loan is affordable i.e. severely credit impaired borrowers
- Those looking to fix their monthly payment and plan their finances
- Those who are risk-averse and would be uncomfortable if rates rose
- Those who would therefore not be comfortable with the possibility of higher monthly repayments
- Do not meet our lending or property criteria

3. Price and Value

The products included within this category continue to offer value to customers through interest rate, in addition to the wider value we offer customers through the provision of our products, propositions and services.

The interest rates on these products are reviewed regularly to ensure that the value we offer remains fair and consistent. This review will consider:

- The value offered through the interest rate and any other features of the product;
- The interest rates of our products continue to meet both the needs of the Society and offer fair value to our members;
- The value offered by the product relative to benefits and costs;
- The value offered by the market and other like-for-like products;
- The value offered through our wider proposition, service, availability and accessibility.

The interest rate of the product is determined by a breadth of factors, including but not limited to; the external market environment, the cost of our funding book, the value offered by the industry/market through like-for-like or similar products, and adjacent products in our ranges.

Customers can access details of their current interest rates in a number of ways, including:

- In any of our branches
- Over the telephone
- Annual Mortgage Statement

Customers have the ability to switch to a current mortgage deal (subject to meeting our current lending criteria and product terms) and current products can be viewed on our website <https://newcastle.co.uk/mortgages/existing-mortgage-customers/existing-customer-mortgage-products>

4. Customer Understanding

Products included in this category offer a variable rate of interest linked to either the Lenders SVR or Bank of England Base Rate.

Customers will receive a European Standardised Information Sheet (ESIS), prior to making an application with us which will provide information around the Key Features of the product recommended and costs of taking the mortgage.

We will take reasonable steps to ensure that engagement with members via customer communications are clear, straightforward, and use language which is easy to understand. To support this, we will use 'Jargon Buster' technology provided by 'Fairer Finance' to achieve the best possible outcomes for members.

We also have dedicated existing customer pages on our website www.newcastle.co.uk which offer support and guidance for customers whose mortgage needs have changed.

We issue a mortgage statement on an annual basis to our customers, which provides information on mortgage payments made, interest charged, outstanding mortgage balance and the interest rate applied to the mortgage.

Where a rate change occurs, we will write to customers to notify them of the change to interest rate and monthly repayment before the effective date of change and as outlined within our mortgage terms and conditions. We will also display notification of change in our branches and Head Office.

We contact our SVR customers on an annual basis to remind them that should this product no longer be the most suitable product for them and/or their circumstances have changed that they may be able to switch their mortgage to a more appropriate product.

We will contact our customers (currently 4 months) ahead of their mortgage product maturing and notify them of new product rates available. We like to reward our loyal mortgage customers and so we have a range of exclusive rates just for our existing customers.

Customers have the option of being able to;

- Switch their product online.
- Speak to their mortgage broker.
- Speak to one of our mortgage advisers – we offer a free, full advised interview service.

5. Customer Support

Customers holding products in this category can get support in managing their product in a number of ways. Customer support is available via all of our channels including:

- Through any of our branches, either face to face or over the telephone
- Over the telephone by calling our Mortgage Contact Centre
- Online via our website or by contacting us by e-mail.

Over the phone we endeavour to offer strong levels of customer service and answer a minimum of 95% of all calls received. At times where we are not able to meet these high standards, we will notify customers of the average call wait time via banners on our website and through IVR on our call lines.

On our website we seek to answer our most frequently asked questions in a straightforward and simple manner to support our customers self-serving where possible.

Should our customer service or support fall short of expectations, customers are able to register a complaint in writing or over the phone. We seek to support customers getting a resolution to their complaint as quickly as possible, by aiming to respond to complaints in 3 business days.

Customers who have find themselves in financial difficulty are encouraged to talk to our Mortgage Support Team who will offer support around mortgage repayments and/or wider finances.

There is a dedicated Mortgage Payment Difficulties page is available on our website and customers can either call into their local branch or contact our team by telephone where we can provide support tailored to an individual customer need, such as changes to payment plans, short-term payment delays, or part interest, part repayment options.

Details of where to seek free and independent advice is also available on our website.

We also provide additional support through our Helping Hand partnership with Citizens Advice Gateshead. The service is available to our customers nationally and goes beyond mortgage payment difficulties, looking at a wide range of support, including access to food shopping vouchers if they are experiencing a financial emergency.

Customers with characteristics of vulnerability

The Product is designed for variable rate mortgage market, which is likely to include some customers with characteristics of vulnerability or who will experience vulnerability over time.

Variable rate mortgage customers may be unaware of the different options available to them and the implications of taking a variable rate product, particularly in an increasing rate environment. They may not have a comprehensive understanding of mortgages or the mortgage market, therefore unable compare the options available to them and the impact a variable rate product may have on their monthly payments should rates rise.

Therefore, they may require additional advice and support to ensure they understand the information being presented to them and the implications of the arrangement they are entering into to reduce the risk of harm occurring.

We considered the needs, characteristics, and objectives of customers with characteristics of vulnerability as part of the design process for this range to ensure the product meets their needs.

We regularly conduct testing and monitoring of our product range to ensure good outcomes for our customers. This testing and monitoring includes a proportion of customers who have characteristics of vulnerability.

We have in place a framework to achieve good outcomes for vulnerable customers, which includes:

- Education and training for our colleagues to ensure they have the appropriate skills and experience to recognise and respond to the needs of vulnerable customers
- Suitable customer service provision and communications are in place
- Multiple contact methods are available
- Tailored communication requirements are available on request
- Flexible policies, where appropriate, to support vulnerable members
- Monitoring to ensure we continue to meet and respond to the needs of customers with characteristics of vulnerability.

Intermediaries should continue to comply with your obligations to ensure that you treat customers in vulnerable circumstances fairly.

Please contact us if you need any further information about how we support the needs of all our customers in relation to the Product.

6. Our assessment of value

We have developed a comprehensive and robust assessment process which evaluates several aspects of our business to determine the value of our mortgage products. This analysis is used to ascertain whether the product delivers fair value for customers.

Following review of our variable rate products we have concluded that the Products included within this category continue to deliver fair value for customers.
