

END-USER SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT

MIMICS INPRINT, ORTHOVIEW, MIMICS ENLIGHT, MIMICS INNOVATION SUITE and PROPLAN CMF

ATTENTION

TO BE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE RENTING OR PURCHASING ANY MATERIALISE SOFTWARE

This license agreement (the “Agreement”) is a legally binding agreement between you (either an individual or a legal entity) and Materialise for the software product identified and defined hereafter, which includes computer software and electronic documentation.

Please read the following Agreement carefully before using the Software. By installing or otherwise using the Software you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If you do not accept the terms of this Agreement, you are not authorized to install or use the Software.

0. DEFINITIONS

The following terms shall have the following meanings:

“Annual License” means an annual subscription basis only.

“Clinical Use” shall mean the use for the diagnosis, the cure, the mitigation, the treatment or the prevention of any disease or other conditions of patients (man or animal) from whom the used medical images originate, as authorized by the proper regulatory authorities in accordance with the laws and regulations of the relevant jurisdiction(s).

“Commercial Use” shall mean the selling, renting, leasing or lending the output of the Software for any kind of consideration or the provision of services for any kind of consideration, excluding Educational Use and Research Use.

“Documentation” shall mean the technical publications prepared and delivered to Licensee by Licensor relating to the use of the Software, such as reference and tutorial manuals.

“Educational Use” shall mean the training or education of people.

“Licensed Material” shall mean the media containing the Software, the Software and the Documentation.

“Licensee” shall mean the holder of the license as specified in the order document issued by Materialise or its authorized representative.

“License File” shall mean the file transferred from Licensor to Licensee allowing Licensee to use the Software.

“Licensor” shall mean Materialise.

“Limited License” means a subscription for a period of time agreed upon by the parties.

“Maintenance” shall include technical support, bug fixes, (for OrthoView) annual template updating and upgrades of the purchased Software. Depending on the software, it may also include an emergency password replacement service.

“Mimics Innovation Suite” shall entail computer programs in machine-readable form (object code) marketed under the name Mimics Innovation Suite (non-Medical, Medical or Student editions), Mimics, Mimics Medical, Mimics Student Edition, 3-matic, 3-matic Medical and/or 3-matic Student Edition.

“Perpetual License” means a subscription with no limit in time.

“Research Use” shall mean doing research with a non-clinical and non-commercial purpose.

“Software” shall mean computer programs in machine-readable form (object code) marketed under the name OrthoView, Mimics,

3-matic, Mimics inPrint, ProPlan CMF, Mimics Enlight and Mimics Innovation Suite.

“Subscription License” means a license to use the Software during the Subscription Term, subject to any further terms and conditions stipulated in this Agreement.

“Subscription Term” means an agreed upon period, during which the Subscription License is granted.

1. LICENSE TYPES, USE OF THE SOFTWARE

1.1 License types and use of OrthoView, Mimics inPrint and ProPlan CMF

1.1.a. Temporary Evaluation License

Under a Temporary Evaluation License, the Licensor grants to the Licensee, who accepts a personal, royalty-free, temporary and restricted right to use the Software by an agreed upon number of users exclusively for evaluation purposes. If no specific number of users is agreed upon in writing, the right to use the software shall be restricted to a single machine in single user mode.

Any other use of the Software, even occasional is absolutely prohibited. For sake of clarity, Clinical Use, Commercial Use, Research Use and Educational Use are absolutely prohibited.

A Temporary Evaluation License is granted for a period as agreed between the Parties. Licensor will provide one License File. This Agreement will take effect upon transfer of the License File from Licensor to Licensee, and will remain in force until expiration of the validity of the License File.

1.1.b. Research License (only available for OrthoView)

Under a Research License, Licensor grants the Licensee, who accepts, a personal and restricted right to use the Software for Research Use. Any other use of the Software is absolutely prohibited. For sake of clarity, Clinical Use, Commercial Use, and Educational Use are absolutely prohibited.

The following restrictions apply to a Research License:

The Licensee is not allowed to permit, directly or indirectly, either himself or through a third party, the installation of the Software at another physical location than the one designated above (or in the order form for the Research License).

Licensor will provide a number of License Files equal to the number of copies that may be installed under this Agreement.

If Licensee ordered training, Licensor will provide such training only to a named person, who will be solely using the Software for research purposes.

The Licensee acknowledges that the license fee of a Research License is more advantageous than the license fee of a Hospital or Commercial License.

In consideration of the conditions under which this Research License is granted,:

- The Licensee shall mention Materialise in all publications and presentations as the company that granted the right to use and operate the Software, and include in such reference “Materialise” and/or “OrthoView”, with the appropriate trademark and copyright notices.

The Licensee entitles the Licensor to refer in public without restriction to the research organisation of the Licensee as official Materialise software user.

1.1.c. Educational License (only available for OrthoView and ProPlan CMF)

For ProPlan CMF this license shall be called Teaching License.

Under an Educational License, the Licensor grants the Licensee, who accepts, personal and restricted right to use the Software, for Educational Use. Any other use of the Software is absolutely prohibited. For sake of clarity, Clinical Use, Commercial Use and Research Use are absolutely prohibited.

The following restrictions apply to an Educational License:

- The Software may be installed on multiple CPU's, but only at the site of the Licensee, i.e. at a physical location where the educational purposes will be fulfilled. Use of the Software can only be made from that physical location.
- The Licensee is not allowed to permit, directly or indirectly, either himself or through a third party, the installation of the Software at another physical location than the one designated in the order form for the Educational License.

Licensor will provide a number of License Files equal to the number of copies that the Licensee may install and use under this Agreement.

Additional License Files shall only be granted provided the Licensee has filed a request for such additional License Files to Licensor and these additional seats have been agreed to. Licensor may, at its sole discretion, make the granting of additional seats dependent on additional conditions.

If Licensee ordered training, Licensor will provide such training only to the named individual, who will be solely using the Software for Educational Use.

The Licensee acknowledges that the license fee charged for the master Educational License is advantageous compared to the standard license price of the Software.

The Licensee entitles the Licensor to refer in public without restriction to the educational organisation of the Licensee as official Materialise software user.

1.1.d. Hospital License

Under a Hospital License, the Licensor grants the Licensee, who accepts, the right to use the Software for Research Use and for Clinical Use, explicitly excluding all Commercial Use.

For Mimics inPrint and ProPlan CMF the Hospital Licenses are only available as an Annual License.

1.1.e. Commercial License (only available for OrthoView)

Under a Commercial License, the Licensor grants the Licensee, who accepts, the right to use the Software for Commercial Use.

1.2 License types and use of Mimics Enlight

Mimics Enlight Research

The Licensor does not intend for the Licensed Material of Mimics Enlight Research to be used as a medical device. In line with standard international practice, the Licensed Material of Mimics Enlight Research is hence not intended by Licensor for Clinical Use.

Mimics Enlight

In countries where Licensor has received prior regulatory clearance for its Licensed Material of Mimics Enlight, where software is unregulated, or where Licensor is exempt from regulation, Licensor may offer Licensed Materials marketed under the name Mimics Enlight for Clinical Use, within the limits of the intended use as specified.

The following types of licenses are available:

1.2.a. Temporary Evaluation License

Under a Temporary Evaluation License, the Licensor grants to the Licensee, who accepts a personal, royalty-free, temporary and restricted right to use the Software by an agreed upon number of users exclusively for evaluation purposes. If no specific number of users is agreed upon in writing, the right to use the software shall be restricted to a single machine in single user mode.

Any other use of the Software, even occasional is absolutely prohibited. For sake of clarity, Clinical Use, Commercial Use, Research Use and Educational Use are absolutely prohibited.

A Temporary Evaluation License is granted for a period as agreed between the Parties. Licensor will provide one License File. This Agreement will take effect upon transfer of the License File from Licensor to Licensee, and will remain in force until expiration of the validity of the License File

1.2.b. Research License

Under a Research License, Licensor grants the Licensee, who accepts, a personal and restricted right to use the Software for Research Use. Any other use of the Software is absolutely prohibited. For sake of clarity, Clinical Use, Commercial Use, and Educational Use are absolutely prohibited.

The following restrictions apply to a Research License:

The Licensee is not allowed to permit, directly or indirectly, either himself or through a third party, the installation of the Software at another physical location than the one designated above (or in the order form for the Research License).

Licenser will provide a number of License Files equal to the number of copies that may be installed under this Agreement.

If Licensee ordered training, Licenser will provide such training only to a named person, who will be solely using the Software for research purposes.

The Licensee acknowledges that the license fee of a Research License is more advantageous than the license fee of a Hospital or Commercial License.

In consideration of the conditions under which this Research License is granted,;

- The Licensee shall mention Materialise in all publications and presentations as the company that granted the right to use and operate the Software, and include in such reference "Materialise", with the appropriate trademark and copyright notices.

The Licensee entitles the Licenser to refer in public without restriction to the research organisation of the Licensee as official Materialise software user.

1.2.c. Hospital License

Under a Hospital License, the Licenser grants the Licensee, who accepts, the right to use the Software for Research Use and for Clinical Use, explicitly excluding all Commercial Use.

The Hospital Licenses are only available as an Annual License.

1.2.d. Commercial License

Under a Commercial License, the Licenser grants the Licensee, who accepts, the right to use the Software for Commercial Use

1.3 License types and use of Mimics Innovation Suite

Mimics and 3-matic

The Licenser does not intend for the Licensed Material of Mimics to be used as a medical device. In line with standard international practice, the Licensed Material of Mimics is hence not intended by Licenser for Clinical Use.

Mimics Medical and 3-matic Medical

In countries where Licenser has received prior regulatory clearance for its Licensed Materials, where software is unregulated, or where Licenser is exempt from regulation, Licenser may offer Licensed Materials marketed under the name Mimics Innovation Suite (Medical editions), Mimics Medical and/or 3-matic Medical for Clinical Use, within the limits of the intended use as specified.

The following types of licenses are available:

	Mimics/ 3-matic	Mimics Medical/ 3-matic Medical	Student Editions
Temporary Evaluation License	Available	Available	Available
Academic License	Included	Not available	Not available

Commercial License	Included	made available in countries where cleared	Not available

A combination of an Academic License and a Teaching License is available as a University Site License.

1.3.a. Temporary Evaluation License

Under a Temporary Evaluation License, the Licenser grants to the Licensee, who accepts a personal, royalty-free, temporary and restricted right to use the Software on a single machine in single-user mode exclusively for evaluation purposes.

Any other use of the Software, even occasional is absolutely prohibited. For sake of clarity, Clinical Use, Commercial Use, Research Use and Educational Use are absolutely prohibited.

A Temporary Evaluation License is granted for a period as agreed between the Parties. Licenser will provide one License File. This Agreement will take effect upon transfer of the License File from Licenser to Licensee, and will remain in force until expiration of the validity of the License File.

1.3.b. Academic License for the Mimics (separate or as part of a University Site License).

Under an Academic License, Licenser grants the Licensee, who accepts, a personal and restricted right to use Mimics and/or 3-matic for Research Use. Any other use of the Software is absolutely prohibited. For sake of clarity, Clinical Use, Commercial Use, and Educational Use are absolutely prohibited.

The following restrictions apply to an Academic License:

The Licensee is not allowed to permit, directly or indirectly, either himself or through a third party, the installation of the Software at another physical location than the one designated above (or in the order form for the Academic License).

Licenser will provide a number of License Files equal to the number of copies that may be installed under this Agreement.

If Licensee ordered training, Licenser will provide such training only to a named person, who will be solely using the Software for academic research purposes.

The Licensee acknowledges that the license fee of an Academic License is more advantageous than the license fee of a Hospital or Commercial License.

In consideration of the conditions under which this Academic License is granted,

Licensee shall mention Materialise in all publications and presentations as the company that granted the right to use and operate the Software, and include in such reference "Mimics" and/or "3-matic", with the appropriate trademark and copyright notices.

The Licensee entitles the Licenser to refer in public without restriction to the academic research organisation of the Licensee as official Materialise software user.

1.3.c. Teaching License (separate or as part of a University Site License):

Under a Teaching License, the Licenser grants the Licensee, who accepts, personal and restricted right to use the Software, for Educational Use. Any other use of the Software is absolutely prohibited. For sake of clarity, Clinical Use, Commercial Use and Research Use are absolutely prohibited.

The following restrictions apply to a Teaching License:

- The Software may be installed on multiple CPU's, but only at the site of the Licensee, i.e. at a physical location where the educational purposes will be fulfilled. Use of the Software can only be made from that physical location.
- The Licensee is not allowed to permit, directly or indirectly, either himself or through a third party, the installation of the Software at another physical location than the one designated in the order form for the Teaching License.

If Licensee ordered training, Licenser will provide such training only to the named individual, who will be solely using the Software for Educational Use.

The Licensee entitles the Licenser to refer in public without restriction to the educational organisation of the Licensee as official Materialise software user.

Licenser may provide Licensee with additional associated material. This material may include:

- Medical datasets
- Course book

These materials may only be used for academic educational purposes in connection with the Mimics Innovation Suite Student Edition, Mimics Student Edition or 3-matic Student Edition. At expiry of the Teaching License, these materials must be destroyed.

The Licensee understands that any use of the Software and associated educational materials, which is different than described above, is not allowed under this agreement and requires a different type of license.

The Licensee acknowledges that the license fee charged for the Teaching License is advantageous to the standard price list of the Software.

1.3.d. Hospital License

Under a Hospital License, the Licenser grants the Licensee, who accepts, the right to use Mimics and/or 3-matic for Research Use and Mimics Medical and/or 3-matic Medical for Clinical Use, explicitly excluding all Commercial Use.

A Hospital License is only available as an Annual License or a Limited License.

1.3.e. Commercial License

Under a Commercial License, the Licenser grants the Licensee, who accepts, the right to use both Mimics and Mimics Medical (the latter will only be made available upon regulatory clearance) for Commercial Use.

A Commercial License is only available as an Annual License or a Limited License.

1.4. Terms, conditions and restrictions applicable to all licenses and all Software

The Licensee understands that any use of the Software, which is different than described the applicable type of license, is not allowed under this Agreement and requires a different type of license. The Licenser, remains the sole and exclusive owner of the Software and reserves the right at all times to modify the Software.

The following restrictions of use of the Software apply to all types of licenses:

- All types of licenses are non-exclusive, non-transferable and non-sublicensable.
- The Licensee may not reverse assemble, reverse compile or otherwise translate the Software or any part thereof.
- The Licensee may not assign, sub license, transfer, pledge, lease, rent or share any rights proceeding from this Agreement,
- The Licensee may not sell Licensed Material or any part or copy thereof.

Medical device software should only be used by trained medical professionals.

2. SINGLE COMPUTER OR FLOATING LICENSES

2.a. Single computer

Except as foreseen hereafter under paragraph 2.b. 'Floating license', the Software may be used only on a single computer owned, leased or otherwise controlled by Licensee. For the purpose of this Agreement, a single computer is defined as one seat with one central unit, one display and one keyboard. Neither concurrent use on two or more computers nor use in a local area network or other network is permitted without Floating license authorised and paid for, as defined below.

2.b. Floating license

A Floating license authorises use of the Software by an agreed upon number of concurrent end-users on one or several computers under following conditions:

1. All computer equipment (including server) is owned, leased or otherwise controlled by Licensee.
2. The floating license is installed on a server.
3. Computer equipment (incl. server) is connected by a Local Area Network (LAN) and are located or registered in one physical location and in one legal entity.

Any modification to the number of concurrent users must be applied for and will necessitate an agreement between the Parties under which such additional seats can be granted.

Licensee ensures that any remote access to and remote use of the Software is only by authorized users to work from home and is in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Additionally, Licensee is responsible for maintaining appropriate security to detect and/or prevent (i) access by unauthorized users, (ii) unauthorized use of the Software, and (iii) wrongful use of or access to protected health information and operational data, and Licensee shall indemnify and hold Materialise, its affiliates, officers and employees harmless from any losses, judgments, damages or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising out of or resulting from remote access use of the software.

2.c. License File

Access to the Software is granted by the use of a License File associated with the computer on which the Software is used. In case of Floating license, the License File is associated with a server. Each License File has a specified validity period. On his request and provided the Licensee is in full compliance with the license terms set out herein, Licensee will be given a new License File at the expiration of the specified period. Licensee can then install the Software for a new period, for use on the same or on another single computer or server. Should the computer or server on which the Software is used be out of order or replaced during the License File's validity period, Licensee can obtain a new License File for use of the Software on another single computer or server, after having certified in writing to Licenser that the previous computer or server is no longer in use and after having paid an administrative fee.

3. LICENSER'S RIGHTS

Licenser or its representative will have the right to audit the computer(s) or server(s) on which the Software has been installed, in order to verify the compliance with the above obligations.

Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the Software and Documentation are proprietary products of Licenser protected under copyright law. Licensee further acknowledges and agrees that all right, title and interest in and to the Licensed Material, associated intellectual property rights, are and shall remain with the Licenser. This Agreement does not convey to Licensee any interest in or to the Licensed Material, but only a limited right of use, revocable in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

4. LICENSE FEES

The license fees paid by Licensee are paid in consideration of the licenses granted under this Agreement. A valid License File shall only be provided to the Licensee upon full payment of the license fees.

5. PRIVACY AND DATA COLLECTION

By providing Materialise with its contact information, Licensee agrees that Materialise may use Licensee's personal data in accordance with the Materialise Data and Privacy Policy (available at: <https://www.materialise.com/en/privacy-notice>).

Materialise reserves the right to use data collection technology to collect data and technical information and to detect and prevent the unlicensed or illegal use of the Software (including suspect files). Materialise will take every reasonable measure so that only the data that may alert of an infringement will be collected. By installing and using the Software, the Licensee acknowledges and agrees that Materialise may collect, disclose to third parties (subject to confidentiality provisions), store and analyse the collected information for the purposes mentioned above.

6. MAINTENANCE

Maintenance is a continuous program and Maintenance terms shall be consecutive. Maintenance includes support (to the extent it is commercially reasonable), bugfixes and upgrades of the purchased modules. Depending on the software, it may also include an emergency password replacement service.

Maintenance allows the transfer of the Software without a transfer fee being due, to the extent that the frequency of the transfer requests made by the Licensee remain commercially reasonable.

If the Licensee has ordered a Subscription or Annual License, Maintenance is included in the license fee.

If the Licensee has ordered a Perpetual License, Maintenance shall only be included in the first year of the license, and can be subject to annual renewals. If the Maintenance term has lapsed and Licensee wishes to renew the Maintenance, Licensee shall be charged a reinstatement fee in the amount of the value of the Maintenance during the lapsed period. The Licensee who has ordered a Perpetual License is required to renew the Maintenance at least once in every five (5) year period.

7. END OF LIFE

The Licensee recognizes that any Software has a given product lifecycle, in accordance with Licenser product policies, and that the Licenser retains the right to cease the support and maintenance for certain versions of the Software. Whenever such an event should occur, the Licenser shall give a reasonable advance notice to the Licensee concerning such cessation of support and maintenance for the certain version(s) of the Software. To continue the use of the Software, albeit in the newer version(s), the Licensee shall be required to upgrade to a newer/newest Software version, for which the Licenser does provide support and maintenance.

8. TERM AND TERMINATION

This Agreement is effective upon the delivery of the License File.

If the Licensee has ordered a Subscription License, this Agreement shall automatically expire upon the expiration of the Subscription Term.

If the Licensee has ordered an Annual License, this Agreement shall automatically expire upon the first anniversary of the Annual License. Thereafter, the Annual License shall only be renewed for periods of one year.

If the Licensee has ordered a Perpetual License, this Agreement shall continue until terminated. If not terminated by either party, the Perpetual License is not limited in time.

Licensee may terminate this Agreement at any time by destroying any Licensed Material in his possession or by returning the Licensed Material and any copies or extracts therefrom to Licenser. No refund of any amount paid will be made, except as granted in accordance with paragraph 6 'Warranty' hereunder.

The license can be terminated by Licenser if Licensee fails to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or if Licenser has serious reasons to believe that this is the case. In addition, Licenser retains the right to unilaterally suspend or terminate any licenses granted to Licensee if (i) Licensee claims Licenser is actually or allegedly infringing Licensee's intellectual property, and/or if (ii) Licensee otherwise directly or indirectly supports any claim made by any third party that Licenser is actually or allegedly infringing intellectual property. In case of termination or cancellation of this Agreement, the license will immediately be withdrawn and stopped.

The license will terminate automatically as of the date Licensee commences any claim that Licenser infringes a patent, or otherwise supports any claim by a third party that Licenser infringes a patent.

When the license expires, the Licensee must stop using the Software and the Software will automatically become non-functional. Upon expiration of the validity of the License File, the Licensee must return all media and communication to Licenser and destroy all copies of the Software, unless the renewal of the License is elected by the Licensee.

If the Licensee fails to comply with the terms and conditions and in particular if the Licensee does use the Software for purposes prohibited by this Agreement, Licenser will be entitled to issue an invoice to the Licensee for an amount equal to a license fee, according to the customary retail price, increased with a penalty of 10% of the price. This right of Materialise is to be in addition of the remedies otherwise available.

9. WARRANTY

If a Commercial or Hospital license has been granted to the Licensee, Licenser warrants, for Licensee's benefit alone, for a period of ninety days from the effective date of the License Agreement with which the Software was installed for the first time (hereinafter referred to as the "Warranty Period") the Software shall operate substantially in accordance with the functional specifications in the Documentation. There will be no Warranty Period in any following renewal periods if the Licensee elects to renew its Annual or Subscription License. If during the Warranty Period, it appears that any part of the Software does not function in accordance with its specifications, Licensee may return the Licensed Material to Licensor for replacement or refund of amounts paid under this License Agreement, at Licensee's choice. Licensee agrees that the foregoing constitutes his sole and exclusive remedy for breach by Licensor of warranties made under this Agreement. Except for the warranties set forth above, the Licensed Material, and the Software contained therein, are licensed "as is", and Licensor disclaims any and all warranties, whether express or implied, including, without limitation, any implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.

In case of Educational and Research licenses, the Software is warranted to perform substantially in accordance with its specifications, for a period of 90 days from the date of delivery of the License File (hereinafter "the Warranty Period"). During the Warranty Period, Licensor's obligations under the foregoing warranty shall be to use its best efforts to correct errors in the Software. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, LICENSOR DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTIES AND CONDITIONS, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, OR COMPATIBILITY WITH PARTICULAR THIRD PARTY PRODUCTS.

In case of Temporary Evaluation licenses, the Software is distributed and provided "AS IS" and with no warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, including, without limitation, any warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. Licensor does not warrant, guarantee, nor makes any representations regarding the use of, or the results of the use of the Software. Licensor does not warrant that the operation of the Software will be uninterrupted or error-free.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

In no event will Licensor, its affiliated companies, or any of its licensors, directors, officers or employees be liable to the Licensee for any consequential, incidental, indirect or special damages whatsoever, including without limitation, any damages for downtime, loss of data or information, arising out of (1) the use or inability to use the Software or (2) the failure to respect its suggestions or recommendations concerning the Software or (3) the computer's, the internet's or any other network's failure to operate. LICENSOR'S ENTIRE LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT DAMAGES BASED ON ANY CAUSE WHATSOEVER AND REGARDLESS OF THE FORM OF THE ACTION WILL BE LIMITED TO THE TOTAL AMOUNTS WHICH THE LICENSEE HAS PAID FOR THE LICENSED SOFTWARE HEREUNDER.

11. CHANGES TO THIS AGREEMENT

Licensor reserves the right to change the terms of this Agreement at his own discretion. Changes to this Agreement will be communicated via e-mail from Licensor to Licensee, who will have the responsibility to communicate the change to all relevant end-users in case of a floating license. Changes to the Agreement will be applicable as from the first day of the month following the month in which the changes have been communicated. The continued use of the Software by Licensee or by end-users expresses assent with the changed agreement. The most recent version of this Agreement can be consulted via <https://www.materialise.com/en/resources/medical/license-agreements>.

12. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the registered office of Materialise. Any dispute shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the registered office of Materialise.

13. SEVERABILITY

Should any court or competent jurisdiction declare any term of this Agreement void or unenforceable, such declaration shall have no effect on the remaining terms hereof.

14. NO WAIVER

The failure of either party to enforce any rights granted hereunder or to take action against the other party in the event of any breach hereunder shall not be deemed a waiver by that party as to subsequent enforcement of rights or subsequent actions in the event of future breaches.
