Overview of the standard:

Early Years Lead Practitioners are highly skilled professionals who take an operational lead for the care, learning and development of all young children within their care, adapting to individual needs providing inclusive and holistic provision. The broad purpose of the occupation is to be a proactive and influential practitioner, working directly with children, skillfully leading day to day practice at an operational level.

In their daily work, an employee in this occupation interacts with children from birth to eight years, families, practitioners, other professionals and appropriate agencies. They engage with sector developments both locally and nationally, with a commitment to developing their own professional and educational competencies.

The programme's structure

Your apprentice will be placed in a role for typically over 24 months during which they will be supported while on-programme by their tutor. Their tutor will review the progress of the apprentice against the standard to ensure they are prepared for the end-point assessment.
