

Can you find the Easter Bunny?

Some fun tips for felt flaps to help little ones develop their motor skills and enjoy reading together!

Babies may need help lifting flaps at first, but will soon learn to do it all on their own.

Look at the pictures in the book and talk about the details together.

Let little ones open and close the flaps as many times as they like.

If something in the book catches their attention, talk about it together.

Make animal noises together to make reading more interactive.

Remember, there is no right or wrong way to read a book. Babies and toddlers have short attention spans, so go with the flow!
