

Campbell

Babies Laugh at Peekaboo

Dr. Caspar Addyman

Created by a leading developmental expert

Babies Laugh at Peekaboo is expertly developed to get babies giggling. Here are some tips from Dr. Caspar Addyman on how to use the book with your little one.

Playing peekaboo is a fun way to bond with your baby. They will laugh and giggle as you play this game together.

Read the book like you are playing a game together. Babies quickly learn the rules and love to anticipate what comes next.

Babies laugh when we give them our attention. That is the secret of peekaboo and why they love it when you read them a book.

Finding the hidden characters turns this book into a funny game. But the laughter comes because you are playing together.

Reading to your baby is a performance. They will laugh because they are delighted you are entertaining them.

