

Recipe for a Story Bag

The solution to all of your storytelling problems, this simple recipe is easy to make, and tells a yummy tale!

You will need:

- 1 empty bag (if it's Mummy's bag then you'd better ask her first!)
- 6 toys and a few other interesting things
- 1 splendid imagination

Method:

- ★ Put all of your toys and interesting stuff into the bag and mix it up.
- ★ Take out your objects, one by one, telling a story as you go along.
- ★ Take your time, don't rush this recipe; each object has a part of the tale to tell... What is their name? Where are they from? What will they do to make it fun? Where will they go? And how will they get there? And, at the end...
  - ★ Home to bed, or off on a delicious new adventure?

Pocket Prose

Find a pocket with something in,
Take it out and then begin...

What is it and where is it from?
How did it get there?

Has it been there long?

What is its story... what could it do?

Is it happy ever after, in your pocket, with you?
