SPOTLIGHT ON:

I WONDER WHY

Kingfisher's trusted question-and-answer series has a brand-new look for a new generation!

Where do angels, clowns and parrots live?

Angelfish, clownfish and parrotfish are just some of the thousands of beautiful animals that live on coral reefs. Tropical fish like these often have dazzling colours and bold patterns.

What is a coral reef?

A coral reef is like a beautiful underwater hedge. It looks stony and dead - but it is really alive! Coral is made up of millions of tiny animals, which leave their hard skeletons behind when they die. Each new layer piles on to the old, slowly building the coral rock.

Coral comes in all sorts of shapes - stony, table, brain, finger, and even brain.

Which fish has headlights?

It's so dark at the bottom of the ocean that some fish make their own light. The angler fish has a long fin dangling in front of its face. At the end of the fin is a blob which glows. Small fish are drawn towards the glowing light, only to disappear into the angler fish's big, gaping mouth.

ANGLER FISH

How deep is the ocean?

Away from the shore, the ocean plunges to about 4 kilometres in most places. That's deep enough to swallow Ben Nevis, Britain's tallest mountain, three times!

Which fish hunts with a hammer?

The hammerhead shark has a huge head shaped like a hammer. But this tool is for hunting, not banging in nails. The shark's eyes and nostrils are at each end of the hammer. As the shark swims, it swings its head from side to side, searching for a meal.

Which is the most shocking fish?

Some fish give off electric shocks to protect themselves or to stun animals they want to eat. The most shocking ocean fish is the torpedo ray. If you could switch it on, it would light up a light bulb!

Which fish look like stones?

Stonefish look just like lumps of rock - but they're far more dangerous. If attacked, a stonefish uses its needle-sharp spines on its fins to stab its enemy with a deadly poison.

The relaunch kicks off in July 2023 with I Wonder Why the Sea is Salty and I Wonder Why the Sun Rises ahead of more exciting titles to come.
