Welcome to Kingston

Kingston University is known for its career-focused courses, excellent teaching quality and entrepreneurial graduates*. In fact, the University is one of the top universities in the country for graduate start-ups.

Based in an attractive riverside area of south-west London, Kingston University offers all the excitement of central London in a relaxed town environment.

We are immensely proud that Kingston University won the 2017 Guardian University Award for teaching excellence.

Kingston University opens up choices – across our undergraduate degree programmes and beyond – to help students build their careers and become well-rounded world citizens through work placements, volunteering, sports and more.

Our graduates have an unrivalled reputation for starting their own businesses – first or second in the UK for the past eight years – and we encourage all students to take an enterprising approach to their future careers.

Our friendly, supportive and multicultural environment is one of our great strengths. Kingston University's international outlook was highly commended in the latest Times Higher Education World University Rankings, placed 123 out of the top 980 institutions across the world.

We look forward to welcoming you.

Professor Steven Spier
Vice-Chancellor

I'm happy to welcome you to the Kingston University, London – International Study Centre, where we will help you to prepare for your future both professionally and academically. At Kingston, you will be able to continue your studies outside of the classroom with our impressive range of work experience opportunities.

Located in the beautiful riverside town of Kingston upon Thames, you will benefit from both a safe and student-friendly place to live, as well as having easy access to the excitement of central London. We have created a friendly and supportive international community, where students of all backgrounds are able to grow into strong graduates. We hope to see you in Kingston!

Jonathan Hope, Head of Centre

*Kingston University was shortlisted in the Times Higher Education Awards 2014 for Entrepreneurial University of the Year.

Kingston University is no2 in the UK for graduate start-ups according to the HE Business and Community Interaction survey 2015–16.

Get ready for an exciting future

Kingston University will prepare you for career success. Whether you want to be an employee or a business owner, we will help you achieve your ambitions.

Preparing you for your career

We pride ourselves on the unique approach we take to produce the most prepared graduates for the workplace. Creating an entrepreneurial environment with a focus on professional skills, we maximise our students' employability potential.

Top-quality teaching

Our Business School was rated 'excellent' for teaching by the Higher Education Funding Council and was the first in the world to be awarded triple accreditation by the Association of MBAs.

Award-winning careers advice

The Careers and Employability department offers practical career support, workshops and expert advice, including CV writing, interview preparation and starting your own business. The Careers and Employability department has won several awards including the Association of Graduate Recruiters (AGR) Development Awards for Best Preparation for Work Strategy in 2017.

Essential workplace experience

Kingston offers a number of degrees which offer practical work experience. In a marketplace where you need to be better than the competition, work experience with a relevant employer gives a distinct edge to your employability.

Placements give you the chance to:

- gain relevant practical experience;
- learn what the working world is like;
- better understand your career options;
- improve your employment prospects;
- earn a salary while you learn;
- work for companies such as Disney, Royal Mail and BT.

Real-life learning

Regular visiting speakers from commerce and industry ensure that your studies are lively, up-to-date and relevant. Speakers have included Levi Roots, the successful Dragon's Den contestant and sauce maker, and Jamal Edwards, YouTube millionaire.

Did you know?

Entrepreneurs from Kingston University pitched their business plans to Mayor of London, Sadiq Khan, after reaching the final of the prestigious annual Mayor's Entrepreneur competition in March 2017.

What is an entrepreneur?

Do you have a business idea you would like to put into action? An entrepreneur builds their ideas from a concept to a successful enterprise, quite often more than once. Famous international entrepreneurs include Bill Gates (computing), Zhang Xin (property) and J.R.D. Tata (information technology, transportation, cosmetics and more).

The International Study Centre

The Kingston International Study Centre (KULISC) provides a range of degree preparation programmes for international students. These include academic modules, English language training and study skills, so you are ready to join your chosen degree programme on completion.

Progression to your degree

Once you complete a degree preparation programme and achieve the required grades, you can enter your chosen degree programme at the University.

Access to University facilities

As a student at the International Study Centre, based on the Kingston Hill campus, you will be part of the University from the day you start your course. As well as benefiting from resources at the International Study Centre, you will have access to all facilities at the University.

For those with business ideas, Kingston also offers support through entrepreneur societies and career guidance from the University's Careers and Employability department.

University-style teaching

The International Study Centre programmes will introduce you to the style of teaching that you will experience when you progress onto your degree. This includes: tutorials, seminar-style classes and large group lectures.

Personal monitoring and support

Your progress will be monitored at all times to make sure you remain on track to successfully complete the programme. You will also benefit from regular assessment through examination and marked coursework.

Professional support with CareerAhead

The International Study Centre offers a variety of CareerAhead activities designed to give you a head start to becoming a highly skilled, self-aware and confident graduate. You will develop key employability skills, such as teamwork, problem solving and communication; as well as assessing your individual strengths and areas for improvement. With help from your tutors, you will create a personal development plan to help set goals for your future success.

KULISC courses

We offer a number of specialist preparation programmes at KULISC:

- International Foundation Year leading to year one of undergraduate study;
- International Year One in Business and Management leading to the second year of a Business Management with Business Experience degree;
- Pre-Masters Programme leading to a one-year taught Masters degree;
- English Language Preparation programme to provide the language skills necessary for study in the UK.

Progress to your degree

Once you complete the programme and achieve the required progression grades, you will be able to join the second year of your BSc degree in Business Management with business experience.

This fully integrated, vocationally focused degree programme includes business experience, a path towards professional membership, and the opportunity to study abroad – all in three years, instead of the four years of a more traditional degree.

This degree offers an exceptional combination that is great value for money and gives you the knowledge, skills and practical experience to enhance your career prospects.

During your third year, you will be given the opportunity to specialise in:

- Human Resource Management;
- Entrepreneurship;
- Finance; or
- Service Operations.

In addition, you can gain the PRINCE2 Project Management Foundation and Practitioner qualifications as part of your course. You will also get membership to the Chartered Management Institute (CMI) whilst on this programme.

A professional qualification will not only boost your skills and confidence but will greatly improve your employment prospects and your future career. Finally, a 22-day programme of pre-business experience sessions will prepare you for your work placement.

Is the International Year One for me?

This is a fast-track programme designed for students who are overqualified for the International Foundation Year, but would benefit from an introduction to studying in the UK. This includes the academic knowledge, study skills and English language ability required to succeed in your degree.

By studying the International Year One, you will save time and money by studying at the International Study Centre and University under one visa for the entirety of your degree.

Tolworth Court sports ground

Kingston Dance Society

Sports facilities

Tolworth Court sports ground covers more than 20 acres and includes 12 football pitches, two rugby pitches, three cricket squares, an American football pitch, a lacrosse pitch, a mini-soccer pitch and netball and tennis courts. We also have an on-campus gym at Penrhyn Road with the latest fitness equipment, as well as an aerobics and dance studio.

Helping you settle in

Your first few weeks at the University are packed full of activities to help you settle into your studies and make new friends.

Support during your studies

Kingston University will provide you with the best opportunities to develop both your life and career skills. Here's how we'll help you reach your full potential.

Academic support

We have a range of services to help you adjust to university study. When you join the University you will have access to a personal tutor who will offer academic guidance and advice throughout your studies.

Student Life Centre

Based at the Penrhyn Road campus, the Student Life Centre brings together a number of key student support services – accommodation, advice, disability support and student funds – so you can easily find help when you need it.

Excellent facilities

More than 3,000 networked computers are available across the University with free Wi-Fi and access to library resources.

The University recently invested £12 million in refurbishing our studios. We provide industry-standard equipment in our 3D workshop, digital media workshops, photography suite and filming studio so you will gain skills you can adapt to the workplace.

Online learning

Canvas is the University's new virtual learning environment which supports your learning journey at the University by providing access to module information and learning materials, wherever you are, in the classroom and on the go.

Learn another language

Studying another language could widen your career options and deepen your understanding of other cultures. The Kingston Language Scheme (KLS) ensures that all students can learn another language as part of, or in addition to, their course. We currently offer programmes in Arabic, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Mandarin (Chinese), Portuguese, Russian and Spanish.

English language development

Free English language courses are available to degree students throughout the academic year to help you to develop your academic English skills and improve your confidence.

Help finding a job

Jobs Central is the University's online job vacancy board, listing graduate and part-time work in London and the local area, if you wish to earn some extra money while you are studying.

Career support

We are committed to ensuring not just academic success, but also that our students can gain practical experience in addition to their studies. You will have the opportunity to take work placements in your chosen industry in a variety of degrees. Both the International Year One and our Pre-Masters Preparation Programme lead to progression degrees which include a year of industry experience.

Accommodation

Finding the right place to live at university is an important part of settling in and making new friends. At Kingston, we offer a variety of options to suit your needs.

Accommodation options

At Kingston University, you can choose to:

- live in halls of residence, where you'll have your own furnished bedroom in a University-owned flat shared with other students;
- live independently in a privately rented flat or house share.

Our halls include:

- non-smoking single study bedrooms arranged in flats in modern halls;
- self-catering with shared kitchens and on-site launderette facilities;
- en suite bathrooms in most of our rooms;
- free Internet access in every room;
- on-site management with 24-hour security;
- specifically designated flats for mature and postgraduate students;
- adapted accommodation for students with disabilities.

London living

Living in London offers an experience you'll never forget. Not only does the city offer the very best of culture, history and fashion; it's also one of the world's leading business capitals. Here you will be able to build the social and business networks you need to succeed.

Business capital

Multicultural London is the perfect setting for building your global business network.

- More than 300,000 people here work in financial services.
- One in five new jobs in London are in the creative industries.
- More than 300 languages are spoken and students are from 200 countries across the world.

Fantastic opportunities

Many major global companies have their UK headquarters in London, providing fantastic employment opportunities and a gateway to Europe. As a global centre of commerce, London is the best place to establish a network of business contacts.

Historic landmarks

Immerse yourself in London's rich, royal history of palaces, parks and castles, from the Tower of London to Buckingham Palace.

Top attractions

Ride a capsule on the London Eye for unforgettable views of London's landmarks like Big Ben and Tower Bridge. Discover museums and art galleries such as the Natural History Museum and the Tate Modern.
