

Certificate of Higher Education in Computing & Information Technology and a Second Subject

These regulations must be read in conjunction with the Academic Regulations (Taught Courses). These regulations are available by going online to the Open University 'Essential Documents' website at www.open.ac.uk/essential-documents.

Award letters

Cert HE (Open)

Entry requirements

None

Maximum duration of study

7 years

Credit requirement

120

Stage 1 (120 credits)

To meet the requirements of the Computing & IT component of the Certificate of Higher Education you need to obtain 60 credits from the specified compulsory module.

To meet the requirements of the Certificate of Higher Education with either Mathematics, Statistics or Design as the second subject, you will need to obtain another 60 credits from the specified compulsory modules in the second subject.

To meet the requirements of the Certificate of Higher Education with Business or Psychology as the second subject, you will need to obtain another 60 credits in the second subject, of which 30 credits will be from the specified compulsory module and a further 30 credits from the specified option modules.

Maximum transferred credit

There is no credit transfer scheme for this qualification

Maximum age of credit transfer

Not applicable

Unique study requirement

60 credits

Additional rules

The University offers the Certificate of Higher Education in Computing & Information Technology and a second subject. A number of second subjects are approved and, subject to the conditions set out in these regulations, the certificate will be awarded with a specified named second subject. In these cases, the certificate is referred to as the Certificate of Higher Education in Computing & IT and 'second subject', where 'second subject' is the name of the second subject concerned.