Core services

Qualification Development

We develop qualifications with training resources and certified programmes.

Assessment and Examination

Highfield set the criteria and standards for assessing candidates' performance, designing exams, assessments, coursework, and practical evaluations to determine whether candidates meet the required standards.

Quality Assurance

We ensure the quality and credibility of the qualifications, rigorous review processes, adherence to educational standards, and monitoring of assessment practices to maintain consistency and fairness.

Accreditation and Recognition

Where appropriate, Highfield seeks accreditation or recognition from relevant government bodies or regulatory authorities.

Industry Alignment

We collaborate with industry experts and professionals to ensure that our qualifications are relevant and up to date with industry best practices and requirements.

Stakeholder Engagement

Highfield engages with educational institutions, employers, learners, and other stakeholders to understand their needs and to continuously improve.

Issuing Certificates

Once candidates successfully complete the applicable qualification assessment, Highfield awards the qualification and issue certification.

Continuing Professional Development

Highfield offers continuing professional development opportunities to help individuals update their skills and knowledge.

UK Regulated Qualifications

- Recognised by regulatory bodies, such as Ofqual, Qualifications Wales, SQA Accreditation, the Council for the Curriculum, Examinations and Assessment (CCEA) and the Security Industry Authority (SIA) and awarded by Highfield
