

The VU Amsterdam makes use of the Easy Access agreement (2026-2031) of UvO.

This buyout scheme makes it easier than ever to use and reuse copyright-protected material.

Read all the conditions here.

Compliant with copyright law: easy and fair.

General rules:

- Always state the source.
- Direct links are preferred.
- Open Access content is always OK.

That way we ensure together that copyrighted materials are used as intended.

For more information or questions, please contact the Copyright Information Point at the University Library via cip.ub@vu.nl

Use links

A direct link in VU Canvas to the article or e-book is always preferred and is always OK.

Use VU Reading Lists

Use the attractive and effective VU Reading Lists to provide easy and optimal accessible literature lists for students in VU Canvas. Always copyright compliant.

Up to 40 pages

40

You can use up to 40 pages from publications (chapters, articles from magazines, etc.) in your lessons, on condition that it is not more than 20% of the original publication. Please note that linking is preferred.

How many images?

There is no maximum of images in your presentations (PowerPoint, Prezi, etc.). But there are two conditions: 1) you may use no more than 10 works by the same maker, and 2) you may use no more than 25 images from the same work.

For all your students

You may offer the content to all students in VU Canvas studying your subject. The rules apply per VU Canvas-course.

> 40 pages?

>40

Will you be using more than 40 pages, or more than 20% of the work? That's possible! Please contact the VU Copyright Information Point (CIP) to assist with a permission request.
