MASTER INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS LAW
ALTERATIONS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS 2026-2027

Below you can see whether there will be any alterations to the master's programme in International Business Law in academic year 2026-2027 and whether transitional provisions apply.

❖ CLIMATE CHANGE AND CORPORATIONS

Compulsory courses

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
Anatomy of Corporate Law	From period 2 to period 5	---
Climate Change and Financial Regulation	From period 3 to period 2	---
Energy Transition in Legal Practice	From period 4 to period 4 & 5	---
Problems of Market Regulation	From compulsory course to restricted elective	---

Restricted electives

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
Masterclass Private International Litigation (Pax Moot Court Course)	New course in period 2, 3 & 4	---
Sustainability, Competition and Consumers	New course in period 3	---
Sustainability, ESG and the Corporation	Course is cancelled	The new course Sustainability, Competition and Consumers can be taken

❖ TRADE AND INVESTMENT

Compulsory courses

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
Contract Law and Negotiation	Course is cancelled	Students will be given one more opportunity to complete the course. Students must contact the course coordinator (Mr. Smeehuijzen) before 1 June 2026. After that, they can take the new course International Climate Change Law
International Climate Change Law	New course	---

Restricted electives

Course	Alteration	Transitional provision
Anti Money Laundering Law Compliance	From period 4 to period 5	---
Competition Law	New name: European Competition Law	---
Foundations: Law & Technology & Economics	Course is cancelled for IBL but remains a course for the master Law	It is possible to graduate with this course in the curriculum until 31 August 2027