

Fidelity China Focus Fund and Fidelity Germany Fund

SFDR reclassifications

August 2023

Under the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (“SFDR”) funds can be categorised in relation to their sustainability, with funds categorised as follows:

- Article 9 being the most sustainable funds, having a sustainable investment as their objective.
- Article 8 being less sustainable but promoting, among other characteristics, environmental and social characteristics.
- Article 6 covers funds which do not integrate any kind of sustainability into the investment process.

This note is to inform you about the decision of Fidelity to update the SFDR classification of two funds. As of 11 August 2023, the classification of the following two funds will be updated from “Article 6” to “Article 8” under the SFDR.

- Fidelity Funds – China Focus Fund
- Fidelity Funds – Germany Fund

With effect from 11 August 2023, the investment policies of the above funds will be enhanced with additional disclosure relating to sustainable investing and promoting ESG characteristics. After a thorough analysis of the investment policy and process of the Sub-Funds by Fidelity, it is intended to classify the Sub-Funds as Article 8 products within the meaning of the SFDR and in accordance with Fidelity’s Sustainable Investing Framework.
