

Name: Agata

Surname: Frigerio

Role: Human Resources Director

Place of birth: Lecco, Italy

Born in Lecco on March 28, 1975, she earned a degree in Economics and Business from Università Luigi Bocconi and, in 2013, she gained a post-graduate specialization in HR Organizational Efficiency from SDA Bocconi School of Management.

In 1999, she joined AC Milan and, in 2007, she was appointed Responsible of HR and Organization in charge of business administration, industrial relations, development and staff training. She is also actively involved in the processes for the recruitment and employment of the new staff.

She is currently AC Milan's Human Resources Director and she is also responsible for the Development and Organization department, the Payroll and Accountability of employees, professionals and collaborators areas as well as the Compliance and Facility management areas of the Milan Group Companies.

She is in charge of the employment process of the Milan Group companies and is a member of the Commission for Labour Law established by the Lega Nazionale Professionisti.