

THE QUALIFICATION

ADIT

*ADIT provided me with a unique opportunity to learn and equip
myself with strong,
up-to-date knowledge
of international tax*

My Binh Ngo ADIT
Tax Compliance & Reporting
Manager, Nordex Group
Germany

The advanced level, specialist qualification in international tax

What is ADIT

The international tax professional today has a varied background, and is expected to be increasingly mobile with an understanding of more than one taxation system. ADIT, designed by a board of world-leading experts, has been created to provide the robust foundation in international tax that today's professional needs. ADIT is an independent means of demonstrating international tax expertise at a global standard, and currently supports a growing community of students, graduates and International Tax Affiliates in over 120 countries and territories.

ADIT is a driving force in the field of international taxation and provided a real opportunity to reinforce my practical skills in international tax law, developed initially through an LL.M.

Kristian Olenik ADIT
Tax Attorney, Federal
Tax Administration
Government of Switzerland

2,000

Around 2,000 firms and organisations employ ADIT people around the world

An accessible qualification

Because ADIT is designed for international tax professionals across the globe, with a wide range of academic and professional tax backgrounds, there are no pre-requisite qualifications. The exams are similar in level to those of a master's degree, and depending on your existing subject knowledge you can choose from a range of study options and course providers.

A modular structure

MANDATORY MODULE

PRINCIPLES OF INTERNATIONAL TAXATION

ADIT's modular structure is designed with flexibility in mind.

For more information on the modules and to view the ADIT syllabus, visit www.tax.org.uk/adit/module-detail

Extended essay

Candidates may submit an extended essay in place of one of the exam choices, consisting of 15,000 to 20,000 words on any aspect of international taxation (subject to approval).

CHOOSE ANY TWO

AUSTRALIA

INDIA

BANKING

IRELAND

CHINA

MALTA

CYPRUS

SINGAPORE

ENERGY RESOURCES

SOUTH AFRICA

EU DIRECT TAX

TRANSFER PRICING

EU VAT

UNITED KINGDOM

HONG KONG

UNITED STATES

EXTENDED ESSAY ON A TAX SPECIALISM OF YOUR CHOICE

Exams held twice a year

All modules are examined each June. The most popular modules are also examined in December.

Transparent exams

Real questions and answers from previous exams are available to help with your study. Practice with previous exams will help you become familiar with the format and level of the exam, identify areas for further study and focus on exam technique.

To view past papers and suggested answers, visit www.tax.org.uk/adit/past-papers

Sit the exams online

ADIT exams are delivered online and can be sat anywhere in the world.

Ahead of exam day, you'll download our bespoke exam app onto your laptop or desktop computer. The exam can then be taken at a location of your choice, such as your home or office.

For more information, visit www.tax.org.uk/adit/managing-exams

Study options

ADIT courses, training and materials are provided by a range of academic institutions, commercial training organisations and course providers:

- ADIT specific – courses specifically designed to prepare students for the ADIT exams
- Online learning – materials and support from a course provider but no classroom attendance required
- In-house training – the course provider comes to your organisation
- Classroom courses – provided by other professional and academic institutions, with teaching relevant to the ADIT exams
- Self study – our detailed syllabuses and recommended reading lists are supplied online and can be used as a guide to prepare for the examinations

For more information on study options, visit www.tax.org.uk/adit/study-options

Holding the ADIT qualification demonstrates an advanced expertise in international tax and also certifies an exceptional ability to advise multinational organisations. It is valuable to my firm and highly regarded by my clients.

Taiwo Oyedele

Chairman, Presidential Committee on Fiscal Policy & Tax Reforms
Government of Nigeria

Certificates

Certificates are issued to each student who successfully achieves the ADIT qualification, upon completion of three modules.

In addition, on-demand standalone and modular certificates are available to students who have partially completed the qualification.

For further information, visit www.tax.org.uk/adit/certificates

120

Over 120 countries represented with ADIT people on every continent

Affiliates

Students who successfully achieve the ADIT qualification are eligible to become International Tax Affiliates of the Chartered Institute of Taxation, and enjoy a number of benefits including networking and continuous professional development opportunities, recognition within the tax profession, and access to a range of tax resources.

To find out more, visit www.tax.org.uk/adit/join

Fees*

| | |
|-----------------------------------|------|
| Student registration fee: | £242 |
| Exam registration fee (per exam): | £222 |
| Extended essay registration fee: | £222 |

* All fees are correct at the time of publication and are subject to change.

For key dates and deadlines, visit www.tax.org.uk/adit/exam-timetable

Leadership

An Academic Board of leading international tax academics oversee and evaluate the technical content and rigour of the ADIT examinations to ensure the highest standard of assessment:

Prof. Philip Baker KC

University of Oxford, UK

Chloe Burnett SC

Selborne Wentworth Chambers, Australia

Prof. Rita de la Feria

University of Leeds, UK

Malcolm Gammie KC

London School of Economics, UK

KR Girish

ITRAF, India

Prof. Ruth Mason

University of Virginia, USA

Dr Zhu Qing

Renmin University of China

Prof. Diane Ring

Boston College, USA

Prof. Jennifer Roeleveld

University of Cape Town, South Africa

Prof. Luís Eduardo Schoueri

University of São Paulo, Brazil

Prof. Kees Van Raad

University of Leiden, Netherlands

Jefferson VanderWolk

Squire Patton Boggs, USA

Academic Board meetings are chaired by:

Jim Robertson

UN Subcommittee on Extractive Industries Taxation

Find out more about the Academic Board at www.tax.org.uk/adit/academic-board

Start your journey at www.tax.org.uk/adit/register

For further information, or if you have a question you would like to discuss, please contact us:

T: +44 (0)20 7340 0550

E: education@adit.org

W: www.tax.org.uk/adit

ADIT is accredited by the Chartered Institute of Taxation. For more information about the CIOT, visit www.tax.org.uk