THE CHARTERED TAX ADVISER EXAMINATION – May 2025

The Chartered Institute of Taxation, the principal body in the United Kingdom concerned solely with taxation, announced today the results from its examinations taken by 871 candidates in May 2025. There were also a further 452 candidates who sat one or more papers on the ACA CTA Joint Programme (with ICAEW) and 55 candidates sat a paper on the CA CTA Joint Programme (with ICAS). In addition, 1,220 Tax Pathway candidates sat a combination of ATT and CTA papers.

The Institute President, Nichola Ross Martin, commenting on the results said:

"I would like to offer my warmest congratulations to those candidates who have passed all of the necessary exams for CIOT membership as well as those who have made progress towards becoming a Chartered Tax Adviser after passing one or more papers at the May 2025 examination session. They should be really proud of their hard work, dedication and effort. The exams set a high standard and successful candidates can be proud of their achievements.

313 candidates have now successfully completed all of the CTA examinations and we very much look forward to welcoming them as members of the Institute in the near future. Included in this figure are 69 candidates who were on the ACA CTA Joint Programme, 11 candidates who were on the CA CTA Joint Programme and 107 candidates who have now fully completed the ATT CTA Tax Pathway by passing the CTA element.

I very much look forward to welcoming the new members into the Institute at the next Admissions Ceremony."

The CIOT is the leading professional body in the United Kingdom concerned solely with taxation. The CIOT is an educational charity, promoting education and study of the administration and practice of taxation. One of our key aims is to work for a better, more efficient, tax system for all affected by it – taxpayers, their advisers and the authorities. The CIOT's work covers all aspects of taxation, including direct and indirect taxes and duties. Through our Low Incomes Tax Reform Group (LITRG), the CIOT has a particular focus on improving the tax system, including tax credits and benefits, for the unrepresented taxpayer.

The CIOT draws on our members' experience in private practice, commerce and industry, government and academia to improve tax administration and propose and explain how tax policy objectives can most effectively be achieved. We also link to, and draw on, similar leading professional tax bodies in other countries. The CIOT's comments and recommendations on tax issues are made in line with our charitable objectives: we are politically neutral in our work.

The CIOT has over 20,000 members who have the practising title of 'Chartered Tax Adviser' and the designatory letters 'CTA', to represent the leading tax qualification.
