Please check your Business Asset Disposal Relief claim

We're writing to you because you included a Business Asset Disposal Relief (BADR) claim in your 2022 to 2023 Self Assessment return. BADR was previously known as Entrepreneurs' Relief.

Our records show this claim for BADR has taken you over the lifetime limit of £1 million.

The limit was reduced from £10 million to £1 million on 11 March 2020. Any claims you made before this date would be included towards your lifetime limit.

To find out more information on BADR, go to GOV.UK and search 'HS275 Business Asset Disposal Relief'.

What you need to do now

You need to amend your 2022 to 2023 Self Assessment return to reduce the BADR claim to the lifetime limit of £1 million or below by [SEES to insert date 30 days ahead].

To amend your Self Assessment return, go to GOV.UK and search 'Self Assessment tax returns'.

Due to the change to your Self Assessment return, it's likely that additional tax will be due.

If you do owe us tax, we'll charge interest on any tax that's paid late. Go to GOV.UK and search 'pay your Self Assessment tax bill' for more information.

If you think you haven't exceeded your limit

If you think your claim to BADR is correct, and hasn't exceeded your lifetime limit of £1 million, please contact us by using the email or phone number at the top of this letter and give your reasons. We will consider any information you give us.

If you don't contact us or amend your Self Assessment return

If you don't contact us or amend your Self Assessment return by [SEES to insert date 30 days ahead], we might amend your Self Assessment return ourselves or we might open an enquiry, also known as a compliance check.

If our compliance check shows that additional tax is due, interest will need to be paid on any overdue amounts. We may also charge you a penalty. For more information about penalties, go to GOV.UK and search 'inaccuracy penalties'.

Please remember, it is your responsibility to make sure your Self Assessment return is complete and correct.
