This letter is being issued to individuals who have been identified as having an online presence which is likely to generate income that should be declared via a Self Assessment return, and have notified us of their intent to file but have yet to submit their 2020/21 return.

As this is their first time submitting a return we are writing to these customers in advance of the 2020/21 filing deadline to remind them of what they need to do to submit a return and how they should declare any income from digital sources.

If the customer has an agent a copy of this letter will also be sent to them.
