

Fun in the sun

Written by Jackie Logue
Illustrated by Karen Tennent

Peg Ted is very excited.
The sun is shining and his friend Mikki is coming over to play.

This is such fun,
let's kick our legs and make a big splash.

I bet I can bounce higher than you.
Yippeeee!

Mikki and Peg Ted try out the trampoline.

Take that!

Peg Ted and Mikki lie down for a rest and play ball.

I bet I can push the ball harder than you!

Peg Ted and Mikki decide to take their power chairs to the park where they meet their friend Celine and have a go on the roundabout together.

Let's pretend we're flying.

Let's go for a drink. I'm thirsty.

Oran joins them on his bike.

The friends enjoy a drink inside a tent to cool off.

Peg Ted blows up
some balloons.

Let's play football.

I am so tired but it was great fun in the sun.

It's nearly bed time and Peg Ted, Mikki, Oran and Celine are suddenly really, really tired.

zzzzz

zzzzz

zzzzz

SCOPE

= Equality for disabled people

Scope exists to make this country a place where disabled people have the same opportunities as everyone else. Until then, we'll be here.

Have you read...?

My Brother Is An Astronaut

Celine's New Splints

Jacob's Traffic Jam

scope.org.uk/books

With thanks to the kind couple who donated the cost of printing these books.