Discover More

Letterkenny is Donegal’s largest town, also known as the Cathedral Town. A bustling town with great cafe, bars and restaurants dotted along its bustling streets. Visit Donegal County Museum on High Road to admire the vast collection of historical artefacts showcasing all aspects of life in Donegal. Stroll towards the Main Street to enjoy the magnificent views of St. Eugene’s Cathedral with its soaring Victorian neo-Gothic design that dominates the town skyline. Experience at first hand one of the largest waterways in Ireland in action as it drives the machinery of the Waitmore. Corn and Flax Mills, 5km southeast of Letterkenny. The mill is powered by the mighty River Swift that runs through the town into the expansive lough.

North Donegal Discover the nearby Glenveagh National Park and Gardens, with its magnificent mountains, pristine lakes, waterfalls, glens, beautiful woodland trails, rivers, lakes and megalithic tombs. Uncover Ireland’s inhabited islands which has led to the preservation of traditions and cultural heritage. Accessible by a 45-minute ferry trip from Magheroarty, explore interesting historical sites including a round tower that once protected monks from Viking raids, the ruins of St. Colmcille’s 6th century monastery and the enchanting St. Killian’s Cross.

South Donegal A 36km drive from Letterkenny is the Magnificent Slieve League Cliffs, situated on the south-west coast of Donegal where you can enjoy outstanding views from some of the highest sea cliffs in Ireland. A truly breath-taking experience, the cliff face of Slieve League rises over 600m above the raging Atlantic with panoramas over the Atlantic Ocean and Donegal Bay. Experience Kilcar, Ireland’s premier surfing destination with its stormy waves. The historic Donegal Castle can be visited in the town of Donegal, home to the O’Donnell chieftains in the 15th century. The Donegal Bay Waterbus departs from Quay Street and takes in the sites around this beautiful town. A 4km drive from Letterkenny is the popular seaside town of Bundoran, known as the Surf Capital of Ireland with surfers produced for producing amazing waves, its beaches offer a haven not to sit and enjoy the surf.

COVID-19 Advice: Please check the latest travel advice and business opening times before visiting.

For more great things to see & do in Letterkenny, visit DiscoverIreland.ie or scan this QR code:

For impartial, personal advice and information look out for Tourist Information Centres and businesses that display this icon.