Limerick City Known as The Treaty City, its history can be seen in the amazing built heritage of this compact walkable city. From O'Connell Street in the heart of the city you can take a short stroll from Medieval Limerick to the elegant Georgian quarter in minutes. North of the city is King John's Castle which brings to life 800 years of dramatic history, climb to the top of the tower to enjoy spectacular views of the mighty River Shannon, Thomond Park and the surrounding contemporary modern cityscape. Visit St Mary's Cathedral on Bridge Street or enjoy a riverside walk towards Limerick City Museum, home to exhibitions of local history and heritage. Throughout the city, the urban street art and stylish boutiques provide a backdrop for the local buskers and street performers who create a festival like atmosphere for the passer by. Limerick Milk Market with its local artisan foods and traditional crafts on Cornmarket Row is Ireland's oldest market. Breathe in the bracing air on the local's favourite walk, The 3 Bridges Loop, or stop off in Peoples Park for a picnic along the way.

The Shannon Estuary Way is a 207km scenic coastal route through Limerick, Clare and Kerry visiting villages steeped in archaeological history and enjoying amazing views of the estuary. Travelling west of the City, visit the scenic villages of Mungret, Clarina and Askeaton before reaching Foynes (40km from Limerick) which is home to one of the deepest ports in Europe. Whilst here you can visit the only Flying Boat Museum in the world to see a unique mode of transport and step onto a full-sized replica of the Boeing B314. Meander along the coast to the charming village of Glin, where the river is at its widest and the views are beautifully expansive. Onwards to Tarbert in Kerry to board the ferry for Killimer in the Banner County, Clare. Enjoy this boat trip crossing the estuary, looking out for the bottle-nosed dolphins who live in its clean waters.

Adare is 18km south west of Limerick City and is known as one of Ireland's prettiest villages. Famed for the picture-perfect row of thatched cottages, and where you can visit three medieval abbeys and the outstanding Desmond Castle, a medieval fortified castle dating to the 13th Century. Situated on the banks of the River Maigue, the village park is ideal for a walk or sit down amid the bustle of the village.

Lough Gur is 20km south of Limerick City and is where you can experience 6,000 years of history. Walk in the footsteps of Ireland's first inhabitants within this ancient and sacred site and learn about the magic of the lake itself. On the shores of the lake is the Neolithic styled visitor centre with magnificent interactive displays where you can listen to stories about the various historical sites in the area. Close by is Ireland's largest stone circle at Grange with its 113 standing stones, discover the facts and magical myths of this scenic setting.

Walking & Cycling The Ballyhaura Mountains are 55km south of Limerick City and offer some of the most spectacular and unspoilt views and routes for cyclists and walkers alike. With undulating green pastures, woodlands, hills and mountains, the ancient and unspoilt landscape offers an abundance of heritage sites and thrilling outdoor activities. The Great Southern Trail is a 96km off-road trail from Rathkeale to Abbeyfeale and is where you can walk, hike or cycle on a scenic pathway enjoying the beauty of the surrounding countryside. The Broadford Ashford Walking Trails are 50km south west of Limerick City and consist of looped walks varying from 1km to 20kms. The routes provide a variety of terrains with a majestic backdrop of rolling hills and open farmlands.
