1. Draw a triangle sort of shape (a bit like a wedge of cheese).

2. Draw a big letter ‘C’ shape for an ear and a sneaky peek of another one behind it.

3. Add a line for Winston’s neck and two rectangles for his cosy scarf.

4. Winston’s tummy is a ‘U’ shape. After you’ve drawn that, add two lines in the middle for the bottom of his jumper.

5. Add two arms and some wiggly fingers.

6. Draw two number 11s for Winston’s legs.

7. Then draw two long mouse feet (don’t forget some waggly toes!).

8. Now draw his long, snazzy scarf and his tail.

9. Add two eyes, a smile and some whiskers. His eyebrows are floating above his head because he is so happy at how good you are at drawing.

10. Finally, colour Winston in!
Winston has a very long journey to find his way home, can you help him find the right path?
MAKE A COTTON BALL SNOWMAN

Make your very own snowman pal out of cotton wool! You can make as many as you’d like – maybe even a whole snowman family.

YOU WILL NEED:
COTTON BALLS
WHITE PAPER
ORANGE AND BLACK PENCILS
BLACK FELT TIP
GLUE
SCISSORS

1. Take your piece of paper and carefully draw a snowman shape. Three circles on top of each other works well, with the bottom circle the biggest, the middle circle slightly smaller and the smallest circle for the head on top.

2. Ask your grown-up to help you cut out your snowman with the scissors.

3. Now generously apply the glue to your snowman – you’ll need enough to make sure that the cotton balls stick properly.

4. Place the cotton balls all over your snowman and press down hard to make sure they stick. Then leave the glue to dry for a few minutes.

5. Now it’s time for the fun part – decorating your snowman! Carefully cut a triangular shape out of the paper and colour it in orange for the nose. And then cut out a hat shape and colour it in black. Stick them on to the snowman’s head with some glue.

6. Finally draw on two dots in your black felt tip pen, above the nose, for the snowman’s eyes.

You can decorate your snowman using anything you can find around the house (but make sure you ask your grown-up first!). Maybe some buttons for the eyes, or ice-lolly sticks for the arms.
Can you colour in this picture of Winston? What Christmas treat do you think he would enjoy – why not add it to the picture?
A bookmark is the perfect item to help you keep track of the pages as you read. It would also make a nice gift.

YOU WILL NEED:
- WHITE CARD
- RED PAINT
- A HOLE-PUNCH
- RIBBON
- SCISSORS
- GLUE
- A THUMB

1. Ask your grown-up to help you cut out a rectangle from your white card, around 4cm wide and 15cm long.

2. Carefully put your paint into a bowl – you might want to put down some newspaper before you do this!

3. Place your thumb into the paint and then press it down firmly on the white card, at a slight angle to form one half of the heart.

4. Now you need to make the second side! Overlap the first thumbprint with a second thumbprint so that they make a ‘V’ shape, which will form the heart.

5. Repeat steps 3 and 4 until you have a line of hearts down the centre of the white rectangle.

6. Wait a few minutes for the paint to dry, and then carefully decorate the bookmark in a pattern of your choice. You could try cutting out little triangles or zigzags at the long edges, draw a border around the hearts, or even cut out and stick another slightly larger rectangle behind your bookmark to frame it!

7. For the finishing touch, use your hole-punch to make a hole at the centre of the top end. Thread your ribbon through the hole and tie it in a nice bow.

Ta-da! Now you can use this in your favourite book, or give it as a gift to someone you love on Christmas Day.
