Working in the hospitality sector

The hospitality and catering sector covers hotels, restaurants, cafes, fast-food outlets, pubs and clubs. The sector employs almost 3 million people in the UK, meaning there is a huge requirement for qualified people. Chef de partie is the intermediate role for learners who want to go on to become a chef. This role requires learners to oversee the running of a small kitchen team, assist other chefs with deliveries and the preparation and cooking of a variety of vegetables and meats.
