How to Use this EPA Kit

Welcome to the Highfield End-Point Assessment Kit for the Children, Young People and Families Practitioner apprenticeship standard.

Highfield is an independent end-point assessment organisation that has been approved to offer and carry out the independent end-point assessments for the Level 4 Children, Young People and Families Practitioner apprenticeship standard. Highfield internally quality assures all end-point assessments in accordance with its IQA process, and additionally all end-point assessments are externally quality assured by the relevant EQA organisation.

The EPA Kit is designed to outline all you need to know about the end-point assessments for this standard and will also provide an overview of the on-programme delivery requirements. In addition, advice and guidance for trainers on how to prepare apprentices for the end-point assessment is included. The approaches suggested are not the only way in which an apprentice may be prepared for their assessments, but trainers may find them helpful as a starting point.

Introduction

Standard overview

The Children, Young People and Families Practitioner works with children, young people and families, including carers, to achieve positive and sustainable change in their lives. They will be skilled in recognising and assessing the complex needs that children, young people and families often present and will agree with the child, young person or family any specific interventions or referrals.

Their approach will be one of respectful curiosity that challenges and supports children, young people and families to achieve their potential and stay safe. They will work alongside other professionals and organisations to share the responsibility for improving outcomes for these individuals and will regularly evaluate the effectiveness of their methods and actions.

Each piece of work with a child or family will be different and they will exercise judgement on a range of evidence-based approaches to inform their practice. Regular supervision with an experienced practitioner will encourage reflection on their practice and at the end of the apprenticeship the high quality of their practice will be making a real difference to those that they work with.

Children, Young People and Families Practitioner within the Community involves managing risk across the spectrum needs for children, young people and families and understanding the importance of, and being skilled in, early intervention and safeguarding. The learner may work with particular age groups, across the full age range or specifically with families to help support the confidence and skills of children, young people and families. The learner will help children, young people and families to overcome barriers and maximise their independence by supporting their confidence and skills.

On-programme requirements

Although learning, development and on-programme assessment is flexible, and the process is not prescribed, the following is the recommended baseline expectation for an apprentice to achieve full competence in line with the Children, Young People and Families Practitioner apprenticeship standard.

The on-programme assessment approach will be agreed between the training provider and employer. The assessment will give an ongoing indication of an apprentice's performance against the final outcomes defined in the standard. The training provider will need to prepare the apprentice for the end-point assessment, including the collation of the portfolio whilst on programme, the competence interview, which will be informed by the portfolio, and the observation of practice.

The training programme leading to end-point assessment should cover the breadth and depth of the standard using suggested on-programme assessment methods that integrate the knowledge, skills and behaviour components, and which ensure that the apprentice is sufficiently prepared to undertake the end-point assessment. Training, development and ongoing review activities should include:

- achievement of level 2 English and maths. If the apprentice began their apprenticeship training before their 19th birthday, they will still be subject to the mandatory requirement to study towards and achieve English and maths. The requirements for English and maths are optional for apprentices aged 19+ at the start of their apprenticeship training.
- completion of a portfolio through which the apprentice gathers evidence of their progress.
- completion of the Level 4 Certificate in Higher Education in working with Children Young People and Families
- study days and training courses.
- mentoring/buddy support.
- regular performance reviews undertaken by the employer.
- structured one-to-one reviews of their progress with their employer and/or training provider.

Portfolio

While on-programme the apprentice must develop a portfolio that will inform the competence interview. Examples of the pieces of evidence that could be included are:

- three to four specific cases that demonstrate evidence of assessment, planning, implementation and review that the apprentice has been involved in. These could include:
  - assessments
  - action plans
  - case notes
  - supervision records

- reports or records produced as part of a work activity
- review of cases
- evidence of issues and resolution in the action plans
- evidence of the values and behaviours that the apprentice has displayed while undertaking their activities. These could include:
  - witness testimonies
  - feedback from children, young people and families and partner agency colleagues
  - manager observations
- a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 5 recorded observations of practice.
- continuing professional development undertaken during the apprenticeship.

The portfolio must be accompanied by a portfolio matrix. This can be downloaded from our website. The portfolio matrix must be fully completed, including a declaration by the employer and the apprentice to confirm that the portfolio is valid and attributable to the apprentice.

The portfolio of evidence must be submitted to Highfield at gateway. It is not directly assessed but underpins the competence interview.

Use of artificial intelligence (AI) in the EPA

Where AI has been used as part of the apprentice's day-to-day work and forms part of a project report, presentation, or artefact, it should be referenced as such within the work. AI must not be used to produce the report or portfolio.

Where AI has been used as part of a portfolio that underpins an interview or professional discussion or any other assessment method, it should be fully referenced within the portfolio.

Additional, relevant on-programme qualification

The required on-programme regulated qualification for this pathway of the apprenticeship is the Level 4 Certificate in Higher Education in working with Children Young People and Families.

Readiness for end-point assessment

In order for an apprentice to be ready for the end-point assessments:

- the apprentice must have achieved Level 2 English and maths. The requirements for English and maths are mandatory for all apprentices aged between 16-18 at the start of their apprenticeship training. The requirements for English and maths are optional for apprentices aged 19+ at the start of their apprenticeship training.

- the apprentice must have achieved the relevant pathway qualification for this pathway of the apprenticeship.
- the apprentice must have a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) certificate.
- the apprentice must have developed a portfolio that showcases the relevant KSBs which can be used to inform the competence interview.
- the line manager (employer) must be confident that the apprentice has developed all the knowledge, skills and behaviours defined in the apprenticeship standard and that the apprentice is competent in performing their role. To ensure this, the apprentice must attend a formal meeting with their employer to complete the Gateway Readiness Report.
- the apprentice and the employer should then engage with Highfield to agree a plan and schedule for each assessment activity to ensure all components can be completed within a 2-month end-assessment window. Further information about the gateway process is covered later in this kit.

If you have any queries regarding the gateway requirements, please contact your EPA Customer Engagement Manager at Highfield Assessment.

Order of end-point assessments

The observation of practice will be the first method of assessment, followed by the competence interview. These assessment methods should be taken on the same day where possible.

The Highfield approach

This section describes the approach Highfield has adopted in the development of this end-point assessment in terms of its interpretation of the requirements of the end-point assessment plan and other relevant documents.

Documents used in developing this end-point assessment

Children, Young People and Families Practitioner (2018)

<https://www.instituteforapprenticeships.org/apprenticeship-standards/children-young-people-and-families-practitioner-v1-0>

End-point assessment plan (2018 ST0088/AP01)

Specific considerations

All of the evidence criteria used within the end-point assessment are based on the Children, Young People and Families Practitioner apprenticeship standard and assessment plan.

The assessment plan states some of the criteria that is assessed in both the observation of practice and the competence interview will need to be achieved in both assessment methods for the apprentice to pass.

However, it has been agreed that the criteria only need be achieved within one of the assessment methods. If circumstances in the observation of practice does not allow the criteria to be achieved, it must be assessed in the competence interview.

If the criteria is achieved within the observation, it does not need to be assessed again in the competence interview. If a pass is achieved in the observation of practice, opportunity will be given to achieve the distinction criteria in the competence interview.

Portfolio:

Apprentices are to submit their portfolio at gateway, along with a completed portfolio matrix. This will support the competence interview and is not assessed. The evidence within their portfolio must be their own work and must have been collated during the on-programme part of their apprenticeship.

Gateway

How to prepare for gateway

After apprentices have completed their on-programme learning, they should be ready to pass through 'gateway' to their end-point assessment.

Gateway is a meeting that should be arranged between the apprentice, their employer and training provider to determine that the apprentice is ready to undertake their end-point assessment. The apprentice should prepare for this meeting by bringing along work-based evidence, including:

- manager statements
- witness statements

As well as evidence from others, such as:

- mid and end-of-year performance reviews
- feedback to show how they have met the apprenticeship standards while on-programme

In advance of gateway, apprentices will need to have completed the following. The requirements for English and maths listed below are mandatory for all apprentices aged between 16-18 at the start of their apprenticeship training. The requirements for English and maths listed below are optional for apprentices aged 19+ at the start of their apprenticeship training.

- Achieved Level 2 English
- Achieved Level 2 maths
- A current Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) certificate
- Achieved Level 4 Certificate in Higher Education in working with Children Young People and Families
- Submitted a portfolio of evidence for the competence interview

Therefore, apprentices should be advised by employers and providers to gather this evidence and undertake these qualifications during their on-programme training. It is recommended that employers and providers complete regular checks and reviews of this evidence to ensure the apprentice is progressing and achieving the standards before the formal gateway meeting is arranged.

The gateway meeting

The gateway meeting should last around an hour and must be completed on or after the apprenticeship on-programme end date. It should be attended by the apprentice and the relevant people who have worked with the apprentice on-programme, such as the line manager/employer or mentor, the on-programme trainer/training provider and/or a senior manager (as appropriate to the business).

During the meeting, the apprentice, employer and training provider will discuss the apprentice's progress to date and confirm if the apprentice has met the full criteria of the apprenticeship standard during their on-programme training. The Gateway Readiness Report should be used to log the outcomes of the meeting and agreed by all 3 parties. This report is available to download from the Highfield Assessment website.

The report should then be submitted to Highfield to initiate the end-point assessment process. If you require any support completing the Gateway Readiness Report, please contact your EPA Customer Engagement Manager at Highfield Assessment.

Please note: a copy of the standard should be available to all attendees during the gateway meeting.

Reasonable adjustments and special considerations

Highfield Assessment has measures in place for apprentices who require additional support. Please refer to the Highfield Assessment Reasonable Adjustments policy for further information/guidance.

ID requirements

Highfield Assessment will need to ensure that the person undertaking an assessment is indeed the person they are claiming to be. All employers are, therefore, required to ensure that each apprentice has their identification with them on the day of the assessment so the end-point assessor can check.

Highfield Assessment will accept the following as proof of an apprentice's identity:

- a valid passport (any nationality)
- a signed UK photocard driving licence
- a valid warrant card issued by HM forces or the Police
- another photographic ID card, such as an employee ID card or travel card

Assessment summary

The end-point assessment for the Children, Young People and Families Practitioner apprenticeship standard is made up of 2 components:

1. An observation of practice of 80-90-minute duration
  - 10-minute initial briefing session
  - 55-60 minutes observation of practice
  - 15-20 minute questions and answers session
2. A competence interview, informed by a portfolio, of 55-60-minute duration

As an employer/training provider, you should agree a plan and schedule with the apprentice to ensure all assessment components can be completed effectively.

Each component of the end-point assessment will be assessed against the appropriate criteria laid out in this kit and a mark allocated. The grade will be determined using the combined mark.

Observation of practice

The observation of practice is weighted at 50% of the end-point assessment.

- To achieve a pass, apprentices must achieve all the pass criteria
- To achieve a distinction apprentices must achieve all the distinction criteria

The observation of practice will consist of a live setting practical example undertaken at the apprentice's normal place of work.

Competence interview informed by a portfolio

The competence interview is weighted at 50% of the end-point assessment.

- To achieve a pass, apprentices must achieve all the pass criteria
- To achieve a distinction apprentices must achieve all the distinction criteria

The observation of practice and the competence interview will typically be conducted consecutively on the same day, with the observation of practice being the first assessment method.

Criteria that cannot be assessed within the observation of practice will be assessed in the competence interview.

Grading

The apprenticeship includes pass and distinction grades, with the final grade based on the apprentice's combined performance in each assessment method. The overall grade for the apprentice is determined using the matrix below.

Observation of practice	Competence interview	Overall grade
Fail	Fail	Fail
Fail	Pass	Fail
Pass	Fail	Fail
Distinction	Fail	Fail
Fail	Distinction	Fail
Pass	Pass	Pass
Distinction	Pass	Pass
Pass	Distinction	Pass
Distinction	Distinction	Distinction

Retake and resit information

If an apprentice fails an end-point assessment method, it is the apprentice's employer who will need to agree whether the apprentice will attempt a resit or retake. If a resit is chosen, please call the Highfield scheduling team to arrange the resit. If a retake is chosen, the apprentice will require a period of further learning and will need to complete a retake checklist and meeting. Once this is completed, please call the Highfield scheduling team to arrange the retake.

The decision on how much time is required is based on a discussion between the apprentice's employer and Highfield. A resit is typically taken within 3 months of the EPA outcome notification.

The timescale for a retake is dependent on how much retraining is required and is typically taken within 6 months of the EPA outcome notification. All assessment methods must be taken within this period, otherwise the entire EPA will need to be resat or retaken.

When undertaking a resit or retake, the assessment method(s) will need to be re-attempted in full, regardless of any individual assessment criteria that were passed on any prior attempt. The EPA report will contain feedback on areas for development and resit or retake guidance.

Apprentices who achieve a pass grade for an individual assessment method or a pass grade overall cannot resit or retake the EPA to achieve a higher grade.

Where any assessment method has to be resat or retaken, the apprentice will be awarded a maximum grade of a pass, unless there are exceptional circumstances requiring a resit or retake, as determined by Highfield.

If an apprentice fails to turn up for their assessments a fail grade will be recorded unless there are extenuating circumstances. Then the relevant Highfield policies will be followed.

Only 3 attempts to complete the end-point assessment can be made.

Assessing the observation of practice

The observation of practice assesses the competency of the apprentice within their work environment. It will provide the apprentice the opportunity to work with or on behalf of a child or young person as both an individual and as part of a family/carer entity. They should demonstrate the application of their knowledge, skills and behaviours within this assessment method.

The observation of practice will require a live setting practical example and should reflect a frequent work activity the apprentice undertakes. The work activity could include:

- a family engagement meeting
- an early help meeting
- a parenting programme
- a visit to a home
- a multi-agency meeting
- contact with children, young people and families

The work activity should include evidence of analysis and professional judgement, practical application of and reflection on theories, models and legislation and child centred practice, and values and ethical considerations.

The observation of practice scenario will be chosen by the apprentice and agreed with the employer who will enable the provision of premises for the observation to take place and allow the end-point assessor access with the necessary safeguards and guidelines in place for live interaction with children, young people and families.

Information regarding the end-point assessment visit will be sent by the employer to the end-point assessor along with the apprentice's portfolio, outlining dates, times and expectations for the observation of practice at least 3 weeks before the assessment is due to take place.

The end-point assessor will not be permitted to ask questions during the observation but will be able to expand upon their own observations to gain a greater understanding of the choices that were made by the apprentice during the observation, and the outcomes that are achieved, through a 15-20-minute questions and answers session that will take place directly after the observation of practice.

The total assessment time for the observation is 80-90 minutes. This includes:

- 10-minute initial briefing:
  - the apprentice will present the 2000-word (+/-10%) summary for 10 minutes before this assessment takes place. The initial briefing will consist of the apprentice outlining the information from the summary to the end-point assessor, including aims and objectives of the session about to be undertaken and how it will relate to the outcomes for the child or young person.

- 55–60-minute observation:
  - the observation of practice will take place and showcase the relevant KSBs for this assessment method
  - it should take place in a live workplace setting
  - it should provide opportunity for the apprentice to show professional judgement, application of theories and child-centred practice
- 15-20-minute questions and answers session:
  - the end-point assessor will ask the apprentice questions to gain:
    - further clarity on the choices made for and during the observation
    - the outcomes achieved
    - reflection from the apprentice on the content of the observation

Before the end-point assessment starts the end-point assessor will outline the purpose of their presence to the child, young person and/or family and the relevant confidentiality arrangements surrounding any information disclosed during the observation.

Before the assessment

Employers/training providers should:

- ensure the apprentice knows the date, time and location of the assessment
- ensure the apprentice knows which Children, Young People and Families Practitioner criteria will be assessed (outlined on the following pages)
- encourage the apprentice to reflect on their experience and learning on-programme to understand what is required to meet the standard and identify real-life examples
- be prepared to provide clarification to the apprentice, and signpost them to relevant parts of their on-programme experience as preparation for this assessment
- support the apprentice when choosing their observation scenario
- enable provision of the premises for the assessment to take place, and access for the end-point assessor
- ensure that safeguarding measures are in place for live interactions with children, young people and families

Observation of practice mock assessment

It is the employer/training provider's responsibility to prepare apprentices for their end-point assessment. Highfield recommends that the apprentice experiences a mock observation of practice in advance of the end-point assessment with the training provider/employer giving feedback on any areas for improvement.

In designing a mock assessment, the employer/training provider should include the following elements in its planning:

- the mock observation should take place in a live setting such as:
  - a family engagement meeting
  - an early help meeting
  - a parenting programme
  - a visit to a home
  - a multi-agency meeting
- 80-90-minute time slot should be available for the observation, if it is intended to be a complete mock observation covering all relevant standards (outlined in the following pages). This should include time for the 10-minute initial briefing and the 20-minute questions and answers session. However, this time may be split up to allow for progressive learning and is in addition to the 55–60-minute observation.
- consider a video or audio recording of the mock observation and allow it to be available to other apprentices, especially if it is not practicable for the employer/training provider to carry out a separate mock observation with each apprentice.
- ensure that the apprentice's performance is assessed by a competent trainer/assessor, and that feedback is shared with the apprentice to complete the learning experience. Mock assessment sheets are available to download from the Highfield Assessment website and may be used for this purpose.
- in the 20-minute questions and answers session use structured 'open' questions that do not lead the apprentice but allows them to give examples for how they have met each area in the standard. For example:
  - Explain how you create a coherent case for professional analysis where the voice of the child is at the centre of the work.
  - Describe which theories underpin your own professional practice.
  - Explain how your professional practice is underpinned and guided by up-to-date key legislation.
  - Explain which theories underpin effective co-working with children, young people and families to achieve the desired outcomes.
  - Describe what research you used to critically inform the design, planning and interventions in plans used for individuals and groups.

Observation of practice criteria

Throughout the 80-90-minute observation of practice, the end-point assessor will review the apprentice's competence in the criteria outlined below.

Apprentices should prepare for the observation of practice by considering how the criteria can be met.

"You identified my/our strengths and difficulties and helped me learn about myself/ourselves. We prepared and made plans where we agreed the next steps together" Knowledge

Assessing the competence interview

The competence interview is a structured discussion between the apprentice and the end-point assessor which will be focused on the work produced in the portfolio.

The end-point assessor will look at the work the apprentice has undertaken to explore aspects such as how and why the work was carried out, the strengths the apprentice has demonstrated, and to ask probing questions to cover any gaps or weaknesses in the apprentice's knowledge, skills or behaviours.

The total assessment time for the competence interview is 55-60 minutes (+/-10%).

The portfolio is not assessed but will be used to inform the questioning in the interview. The apprentice and the end-point assessor should both have access to the portfolio during the interview.

Apprentices should give examples and specific explanations from their portfolio of how they have used their knowledge, skills and behaviours in a relevant real-life situation and base their answers on prior experience. They will be awarded a grade based on their coverage of the relevant assessment criteria covered in the following pages.

The competence interview is weighted at 50% of the end-point assessment.

- To achieve a pass, apprentices must achieve all the pass criteria
- To achieve a distinction apprentices must achieve all the distinction criteria

Highfield would encourage the employer/training provider and the apprentice to plan for the interview by familiarising themselves with the skills criteria that will be assessed and reflect on their experience in a Children, Young People and Families Practitioner role. The competence interview will also allow apprentices to cover any remaining criteria they were not able to cover in the observation of practice.

Employers can be present during the assessment, however, this is not compulsory. They will not be allowed to assist the apprentice in any way during the assessment.

Before the assessment

Employers/training providers should:

- ensure the apprentice knows the date, time and location of the assessment
- ensure the apprentice knows which Children, Young People and Families Practitioner criteria will be assessed (outlined on the following pages)
- encourage the apprentice to reflect on their experience and learning on-programme to understand what is required to meet the standard and identify real-life examples
- be prepared to provide clarification to the apprentice, and signpost them to relevant parts of their on-programme experience as preparation for this assessment

Competence interview mock assessment

It is the employer/training provider's responsibility to prepare apprentices for their end-point assessment. Highfield recommends that the apprentice experiences a mock competence interview in advance of the end-point assessment with the training provider/employer giving feedback on any areas for improvement.

In designing a mock assessment, the employer/training provider should include the following elements in its planning:

- the mock interview should take place in a suitable location.
- a 55-60 minute time slot should be available for the interview, if it is intended to be a complete mock interview covering all relevant standards (outlined in the following pages).
- consider a video or audio recording of the mock interview and allow it to be available to other apprentices, especially if it is not practicable for the employer/training provider to carry out a separate mock interview with each apprentice.
- ensure that the apprentice's performance is assessed by a competent trainer/assessor, and that feedback is shared with the apprentice to complete the learning experience. Mock assessment sheets are available to download from the Highfield Assessment website and may be used for this purpose.
- in the interview use structured 'open' questions that do not lead the apprentice but allows them to give examples for how they have met each area in the standard. For example:
  - Describe a specific safeguarding risk to children.
  - Explain how you would meet a child's development needs.
  - Explain what theoretical model you consider when monitoring changes in a child's wellbeing.
  - Describe an intervention you have had to use and its associated theory in the context of a health and social care setting.
  - Explain a framework for working with children.
  - Why is it important to consider ethics within your role?
  - Explain how you agree outcomes when building relationships with other workers.
  - Describe what values your organisation upholds.
  - How do you ensure you are enabling the voices of the children in your care?

Competence interview criteria

Throughout the 55-60 minute interview, the end-point assessor will review the apprentice's competence in the criteria outlined below.

Apprentices should prepare for the competence interview by considering how the criteria can be met.
