	The unique child
Ref	Pass criteria	Criteria met	Criteria not met
TUC1	Advocates to ensure the child's voice is always heard, respected and acted upon in their best interest, demonstrating a clear understanding of an inclusive and ethical approach to practice which is responsive and respectful to the individual child and takes account of the social and cultural context. Demonstrates how they continuously evaluate the quality of the childcare environment. (K1, S2, S24)
TUC2	Demonstrates respectful and nurturing care through current and contemporary schools of thought when planning and undertaking theoretically sound physical routines for individual children. Acts in a way that is person centred, friendly and approachable, demonstrating caring, empathetic and respectful qualities. (K4, S17, B3)
TUC3	Responds to a child's individual needs and circumstances, through planning that reflects the child's need for consistent care as well as being able to adapt to the child's and families' needs during change, including transitions. Responds to a child's needs by being consistent in the planning and provision needed for their individual care and development. (K14, S4)
TUC4	Demonstrates communication skills to identify, action and address challenging issues and undertake difficult conversations. (S23)
Ref	Distinction criteria	Criteria met	Criteria not met
TUC5	Demonstrates how their practice challenges both explicit and implicit discrimination, and actively supports children to advocate for themselves, by developing a sense of agency, autonomy, and the skills to impact their world. (K1, S2, S24)
TUC6	Critically evaluates all systems including transitions and develop processes, accounting for all children's and families' needs. (K14, S4)

TUC7 Evaluates their own approach to challenging issues and how undertaking difficult conversations may impact the outcome.
