How to Use this EPA Kit

Welcome to the Highfield End-Point Assessment Kit for the Level 3 Custody and Detention Officer Apprenticeship Standard.

Highfield is an independent end-point assessment organisation that has been approved to offer and carry out the independent end-point assessments for the Level 3 Custody and Detention Officer Apprenticeship Standard. Highfield internally quality assures all end-point assessments in accordance with its IQA process, and additionally, all end-point assessments are externally quality assured by the relevant EQA organisation.

The EPA kit is designed to outline all you need to know about the end-point assessments for this standard and will also provide an overview of the on-programme delivery requirements. In addition, advice and guidance for trainers on how to prepare apprentices for the end-point assessment is included. The approaches suggested are not the only way in which an apprentice may be prepared for their assessments, but trainers may find them helpful as a starting point.

Key facts

Introduction

Standard overview

To work in custody and detention is to ensure that individuals are held in a secure, safe, decent and fair environment and work as part of a team to ensure that the safety of everyone in custody and detention centres is a priority. A custody and detention officer will operate in a secure environment such as a prison, detention centre or custodial establishment; all unique and often challenging places to work. The environment could vary from a women's unit or treatment prison to a male resettlement prison.

The people in the care of a custody and detention officer will have a variety of different needs and will display varied behaviour. It is the role of a custody and detention officer to work to ensure that these individuals are treated with dignity and respect and helped to find a new way of life while maintaining a safe, secure and structured environment. These environments rely and operate on routine, which a custody and detention officer will need to be part of, however, they can often be volatile, challenging places to work and custody and detention officers must be able and agile enough to respond quickly to a variety of incidents while maintaining professional standards throughout.

A custody and detention officer will also play a key role in the rehabilitation of those in their care, acting to build commitment to change to reduce reoffending and to coach people in skills such as problem-solving and the management of emotions. A custody and detention officer will be expected to positively influence the lives of those in their care by working with them on a daily basis, ensuring they take responsibility for their actions and welfare. This may include maintaining links with their families, addressing offending behaviours, which may have contributed to their situation, and seeking positive resolutions to circumstances that will affect their re-integration to society.

Custody and detention officers are frontline staff who have a duty to enforce and uphold legal decisions and follow processes and procedures with integrity, honesty and professionalism. Roles in this environment will involve working a variety of shifts 365 days a year, including evenings, nights, weekends and holiday periods. Examples of roles in this sector are prison officers, custodial officers, detention officers and escorting officers.

On-programme requirements

Although learning, development and on-programme assessment are flexible, and the process is not prescribed, the following is the recommended baseline expectation for an apprentice to achieve full competence in line with the Custody and Detention Officer Apprenticeship Standard.

The on-programme assessment approach will be agreed between the training provider and employer. The assessment will give an ongoing indication of an apprentice's performance against the final outcomes defined in the standard. The training provider will need to prepare the apprentice for the end-point assessment, including preparation for the professional discussion and collation of the portfolio of evidence (e.g. provision of recordings of professional discussions or workplace evidence).

The training programme leading to end-point assessment should cover the breadth and depth of the standard using suggested on-programme assessment methods that integrate the knowledge, skills and behaviour components, and which ensure that the apprentice is sufficiently prepared to undertake the end-point assessment. Training, development and ongoing review activities should include:

 achievement of level 2 English and maths. If the apprentice began their apprenticeship training before their 19th birthday, they will still be subject to the mandatory requirement to study towards and achieve English and maths. The requirements for English and maths are optional for apprentices aged 19+ at the start of their apprenticeship training.

Throughout the period of learning and development, and at least every 2 months, the apprentice should meet with the on-programme assessor to record their progress against the standard. At these reviews, evidence should be discussed and recorded by the apprentice. The maintenance of an on-programme record is important to support the apprentice, on-programme assessor and employer in monitoring the progress of learning and development and to determine when the apprentice has achieved full competence in their job role and is therefore ready for end-point assessment.

Portfolio of evidence

While on-programme, the apprentice will collate a portfolio of evidence which must be submitted at gateway and accompanied by a portfolio of evidence matrix. The portfolio of evidence matrix is available to download at the Highfield Assessment website.

You will be provided with a link by your Highfield EPA Customer Engagement Manager to enable you to submit the apprentice's portfolio for the assessor to review in order to inform the professional discussion.

Use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in the EPA

Where AI has been used as part of the apprentice's day-to-day work and forms part of a project report, presentation, or artefact, it should be referenced as such within the work. AI must not be used to produce the report or portfolio.

Where AI has been used as part of a portfolio that underpins an interview or professional discussion or any other assessment method, it should be fully referenced within the portfolio.

Additional, relevant on-programme qualification

There are no mandatory qualifications for this standard, however, employers may wish to include relevant qualifications to help structure the on-programme delivery.

Readiness for end-point assessment

In order for an apprentice to be ready for the end-point assessments:

- the apprentice must have achieved level 2 English and maths. The requirements for English and maths are mandatory for all apprentices aged between 16-18 at the start of their apprenticeship training. The requirements for English and maths are optional for apprentices aged 19+ at the start of their apprenticeship training.
- a portfolio evidencing that they have met the requirements of the standard, which will be verified by a person appointed by the employer who has contact with the learner and has sector experience.
- the line manager (employer) must be confident that the apprentice has developed all the knowledge, skills and behaviours defined in the apprenticeship standard and that the apprentice is competent in performing their role. To ensure this, the apprentice must attend a formal meeting with their employer to complete the gateway readiness report.
- a Ministry of Justice Commissioners licence to practice.
- the apprentice and the employer should then engage with Highfield to agree a plan and schedule for each assessment activity to ensure all components can be completed within a 3-month end-assessment window. Further information about the gateway process is covered later in this kit.

If you have any queries regarding the gateway requirements, please contact your EPA Customer Engagement Manager at Highfield Assessment.

Order of end-point assessments

The assessments of a project and a professional discussion can be taken in any order. However, Highfield suggests that the project is submitted prior to the professional discussion taking place.

The Highfield Approach

This section describes the approach Highfield has adopted in the development of this endpoint assessment in terms of its interpretation of the requirements of the end-point assessment plan and other relevant documents.

Documents used in developing this end-point assessment

Standard (2017)

https://www.instituteforapprenticeships.org/apprenticeship-standards/custody-anddetention-officer-v1-0

End-point assessment plan (May 2018) ST0386/AP01

https://www.instituteforapprenticeships.org/media/1549/st0386_custody-anddetention-officer_l3.pdf

Specific considerations

The assessment plan makes reference to weightings of 29% for the project and 71% for the professional discussion, however, this has not been referenced in this EPA kit as there is no further guidance in the assessment plan on how to apply the weighting.

The assessment plan states that the professional discussion will focus on the knowledge, skills and behaviours in the standard (as detailed in Appendix 1) and is expected to last 90 minutes (+/- 10%) The first 45 minutes will concentrate on questions on basic knowledge and the second 45 minutes will be a more in-depth discussion bringing in skills and behaviours. However, the pass and distinction criteria outlined within appendix 2 of the assessment plan are not broken down as Knowledge, Skills and Behaviours, but each assessment criteria covers a knowledge, skill and behaviour. To promote the opportunity for a flowing discussion, Highfield has interpreted this statement as guidance only and our assessors will use a holistic approach to assessment and prepare questions which will engage the learner and encourage in-depth discussion into the relevant areas of the standard using key examples to illustrate throughout the 90-minute assessment.

The pass criteria in project section 5 within the assessment plan shows 'Works as part of team, knows the roles of self and others within the team. Knows own strengths and weaknesses and when to seek support from team members'. Highfield have split this pass criteria into 2 separate criteria, labelled PS5.1 & PS5.2.

Further confirmation from the trailblazer group states that an apprentice can re-sit either the whole EPA or each component a maximum of 3 times.

Gateway

How to prepare for gateway

After apprentices have completed their on-programme learning, they should be ready to pass through 'gateway' to their end-point assessment.

Gateway is a meeting that should be arranged between the apprentice, their employer and training provider to determine that the apprentice is ready to undertake their endpoint assessment. The apprentice should prepare for this meeting by bringing along workbased evidence, including:

- customer feedback
- recordings
- manager statements
- witness statements

As well as evidence from others, such as:

- mid and end-of-year performance reviews
- feedback to show how they have met the apprenticeship standards while onprogramme

In advance of gateway, apprentices will need to have completed the following. The requirements for English and maths listed below are mandatory for all apprentices aged between 16-18 at the start of their apprenticeship training. The requirements for English and maths listed below are optional for apprentices aged 19+ at the start of their apprenticeship training.

- Achieved level 2 English
- Achieved level 2 maths
- Achieved the Ministry of Justice Commissioners licence to practice
- A portfolio evidencing that they have met the requirements of the standard (which must be verified by a person appointed by the employer who has contact with the learner and has sector experience), accompanied by the portfolio of evidence matrix.

You will be provided with a Dropbox link by your Highfield employer engagement manager to enable you to submit the apprentice's portfolio for the assessor to review in order to inform the professional discussion.

Therefore, apprentices should be advised by employers and providers to gather this evidence and undertake these qualifications during their on-programme training. It is recommended that employers and providers complete regular checks and reviews of this evidence to ensure the apprentice is progressing and achieving the standards before the formal gateway meeting is arranged.

The gateway meeting

The gateway meeting should last around an hour and must be completed on or after the apprenticeship on-programme end date. It should be attended by the apprentice and the relevant people who have worked with the apprentice on-programme, such as the line manager/employer or mentor, the on-programme trainer/training provider and/or a senior manager (as appropriate to the business).

During the meeting, the apprentice, employer and training provider will discuss the apprentice's progress to date and confirm if the apprentice has met the full criteria of the apprenticeship standard during their on-programme training. The Gateway Readiness Report should be used to log the outcomes of the meeting and agreed by all 3 parties. This report is available to download from the Highfield Assessment website.

The report should then be submitted to Highfield to initiate the end-point assessment process. If you require any support completing the Gateway Readiness Report, please contact your EPA Customer Engagement Manager at Highfield Assessment.

Please note: a copy of the standard should be available to all attendees during the gateway meeting.

Reasonable adjustments and special considerations

Highfield Assessment has measures in place for apprentices who require additional support. Please refer to the Highfield Assessment Reasonable Adjustments Policy for further information/guidance.

ID requirements

Highfield Assessment will need to ensure that the person undertaking an assessment is indeed the person they are claiming to be. All employers are therefore required to ensure that each apprentice has their identification with them on the day of the assessment so the end-point assessor can check.

Highfield Assessment will accept the following as proof of an apprentice's identity:

- a valid passport (any nationality)
- a signed UK photocard driving licence
- a valid warrant card issued by HM forces or the police
- another photographic ID card, e.g. employee ID card, travel card, etc.

Assessment Summary

The end-point assessment for the Custody and Detention Officer Apprenticeship Standard is made up of 2 components.

- 1. A project, in the form of a 1,500-word report
- 2. A 90-minute professional discussion based on the work-based portfolio

As an employer/training provider, you should agree a plan and schedule with the apprentice to ensure all assessment components can be completed effectively.

Each component of the end-point assessment will be assessed against the appropriate criteria laid out in this kit and a mark allocated. The grade will be determined using the combined mark.

Project

- To achieve a pass, apprentices must achieve all the pass criteria in all sections
- To achieve a distinction, apprentices must achieve all the pass criteria and all the distinction criteria in at least 3 out of the 5 sections
- Unsuccessful apprentices will not have all pass criteria

Professional discussion

- To achieve a pass, apprentices must achieve all Pass criteria in all sections
- To achieve a distinction, apprentices must achieve all the pass criteria in all the sections and all the Distinction criteria
- Unsuccessful apprentices will not have met all pass criteria

The professional discussion may be conducted using technology such as video link, as long as fair assessment conditions can be maintained.

Grading

Project	Professional Discussion	Overall Grade
Pass	Pass	Pass
Pass	Distinction	Pass
Distinction	Pass	Pass
Distinction	Distinction	Distinction

The overall grade for the apprentice is determined as follows:

Retake and Re-sit information

Should an apprentice fail to achieve a pass grade in either of the methods of assessment, they will only be required to resit the component of the assessment that they have not met.

Resits are permitted after 1 month following the first assessment and within 12 months but not after 12 months. Resits should also be arranged in line with the policies, practices and procedures of Highfield.

The apprentice can resit either component or the entire EPA a maximum of 3 times.

If an apprentice fails an end-point assessment method, it is the employer, provider and apprentice's decision whether to attempt a resit or retake. If a resit is chosen, please call the Highfield scheduling team to arrange the resit. If a retake is chosen, the apprentice will require a period of further learning and will need to complete a retake checklist. Once this is completed, please call the Highfield scheduling team to arrange the retake.

When undertaking a resit or retake, the assessment method(s) will need to be reattempted in full, regardless of any individual assessment criteria that were passed on any prior attempt. The EPA Report will contain feedback on areas for development and resit or retake guidance.

Apprentices who achieve a pass grade cannot resit or retake the EPA to achieve a higher grade.

Assessing the Project

The project will be completed within 20 working days of the apprentice going through the gateway process. The project report will be a written account of 1,500 words (+/-10%) demonstrating the application of knowledge and skills in practice and values and behaviours from these areas of the standard. The apprentice and their line manager will discuss the title and content of the project and the line manager will confirm that it is suitable for assessment.

The project must draw on the experience gained throughout the duration of the apprenticeship and contain real activities done in the role and also research undertaken post-gateway. With this in mind, and given the sensitivity of the information that may be contained within the reports, any names of individuals should not be included within the project. The apprentice should simply refer to an individual as 'prisoner A', 'prisoner B' etc.

Highfield has provided a list of 6 project titles and the apprentice will select one. This will facilitate standardisation between establishments. The list may be changed periodically.

Project titles	Focus and coverage
Promoting family ties
Addressing offending behaviour	What was the situation?
Promoting the benefits of education and training	<ul><li>What did you do?</li><li>What was the outcome?</li></ul>
The importance of reducing substance abuse	<ul> <li>How does this contribute to the wider rehabilitative</li> </ul>
Addressing violent behaviour	culture?
Addressing mental health challenges

Apprentices may choose from one of the following project area titles:

The project will take the form of a report to the governor of their establishment and will detail how the apprentice has actively contributed to the wider rehabilitative culture change.

Completion of a governor's report is an expected part of the custody and detention officer role and the project is designed to test that the apprentice:

- understands the high importance to the sector of the rehabilitative agenda.
- is aware of the responsibility that they personally play in contributing to the agenda.

- can clearly and accurately present information regarding a situation or incident in a report that may be required as part of a forensic or evidential process.
- has the opportunity to reflect on the skills, knowledge and behaviour learnt onprogramme. The suggested project themes tie in with the local, political and social agenda for rehabilitation.

Before beginning the project, careful planning must be conducted to ensure that the report covers all of the criteria within the project section of the assessment plan.

Project title	Focus and coverage	Number of words
Introduction	Outline of why the project title has been chosen	Approx. 100
Main body	<ul> <li>To cover: <ul> <li>An overview of the situation (what was the situation)</li> <li>Their role in the situation / What actions they took and why (what did you do)</li> <li>The outcome of their actions (what was the outcome)</li> <li>How this contributes to the wider rehabilitative culture</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Approx. 1250
Conclusion	<ul> <li>A reflection on the success of the project</li> <li>Lessons learnt</li> <li>What they may have done differently</li> <li>How this contributed to the wider rehabilitative culture</li> </ul>	Approx. 150

Highfield recommends that an appropriate way to structure the report is as follows:

Highfield will put in place systems to check for potential plagiarism. The independent assessor will determine the grade to be awarded for the project.

The written project report must be 1,500 words in length +/-10%, excluding any annexes.

End-point assessors will only mark project reports up to 1,500 words +10% (Maximum 1,650 words). At which point, assessors will stop marking and only credit the criteria covered to that point. Project reports which fall short of the word count will be marked in full, against all criteria.

The report must be accompanied by the Written Submission Sheet which is available to download from the Highfield Assessment website.

Project Criteria

The apprentice will be assessed against the pass and distinction criteria below. A distinction may be achieved if all of the pass criteria are achieved as well as all of the distinction criteria from any 3 sections.

Assessing the Professional Discussion

While on-programme, the apprentice will gather evidence to create a portfolio which will be the basis of the professional discussion. It will be verified by a person appointed by the employer or training provider organisation who has contact with the learner and has sector experience. The apprentice will submit their portfolio at gateway alongside the portfolio of evidence matrix.

You will be provided with a link by your Highfield employer engagement manager to enable you to submit the apprentice's portfolio for the assessor to review in order to inform the professional discussion.

The assessor will review the portfolio, which will be used to inform the professional discussion. The portfolio can be brought into the professional discussion.

The portfolio must include evidence of performance in the workplace as the primary source of evidence, including the line manager's observation of performance in the workplace. The portfolio is likely to contain several types of evidence, designed so that they collectively demonstrate that the apprentice has learned and applied the knowledge, skills and behaviours of the standard.

The professional discussion is a semi-structured interview between the apprentice and the independent assessor, and it takes place once the assessor has had a chance to review the portfolio. It will focus on the knowledge, skills and behaviours in the standard and is expected to last 90 minutes (+/- 10%).

The purpose of the professional discussion is to:

- explore evidence for areas of the standard that are best assessed verbally, due to the broad and complex nature of those areas, particularly the skills and behaviours
- provide the basis for the independent assessor to make a decision about the grade to be awarded for the professional discussion

The independent assessor will select questions from a question bank developed by Highfield. These questions will be based on all areas of the standard and will allow assessors to ask probing follow-up questions, if required, to ensure the apprentice can meet both the pass and distinction criteria.

The professional discussion may be carried out face to face but could be done remotely using videoconference, depending on the number and location of apprentices.

The professional discussion will be conducted in a 'controlled environment' such as a quiet room away from the normal place of work. In all circumstances, the identity of the apprentice must be verified. The professional discussion has been chosen as an assessment method as verbal communication is a key component of the role. Apprentices will be able to demonstrate that they have met the requirements of the standard and will also be provided with the opportunity to work towards achieving a distinction.

The employer may be present to support, but not lead, the apprentice and to confirm information at the assessor's request. Highfield has produced an employers' representative guide which gives further information.

The employer will not be allowed to add any further information or examples to what the apprentice has stated or lead them in any way. The apprentice may choose to bring their portfolio along to support them during their professional discussion.

- To achieve a pass, all pass criteria must be covered
- To achieve a distinction, apprentices must achieve a distinction in all of the 5 critical sections and a pass in the other 7 sections
- Unsuccessful apprentices will not have met all of the pass criteria

Before the assessment:

Employers/training providers should:

- ensure the apprentice knows the date, time and location of the assessment
- ensure the apprentice knows which criteria will be assessed (outlined on the following pages)
- encourage the apprentice to reflect on their experience and learning onprogramme to understand what is required to meet the standard
- be prepared to provide clarification to the apprentice, and signpost them to relevant parts of their on-programme experience as preparation for this assessment

Professional Discussion Mock Assessment

It is the employer/training provider's responsibility to prepare apprentices for their end-point assessment, and Highfield recommends that the apprentice experiences a mock professional discussion in preparation for the real thing. The most appropriate form of mock professional discussion will depend on the apprentice's setting and the resources available at the time.

In designing a mock assessment, the employer/training provider should include the following elements in its planning:

- the mock professional discussion should take place in a suitable location.
- a 90-minute time slot should be available to complete the professional discussion if it is intended to be a complete professional discussion covering all relevant standards. However, this time may be split up to allow for progressive learning.
- consider a video or audio recording of the mock professional discussion and allow it to be available to other apprentices, especially if it is not practicable for the employer/training provider to carry out a separate mock assessment with each apprentice.
- ensure that the apprentice's performance is assessed by a competent trainer/assessor, and that feedback is shared with the apprentice to complete the learning experience. Mock assessment sheets are available to download from the Highfield Assessment website and may be used for this purpose.
- ensure the apprentice uses at least 1 CPD activity they have undertaken.
- use structured 'open' questions that do not lead the apprentice but allows them to express their knowledge and experience in a calm and comfortable manner. For example:
  - Identify health and safety rules in your organisation.
  - Define behaviour styles.
  - Why might you have to adapt your behaviour when dealing with different prisoners?
  - How do you book yourself onto a training course?

Professional Discussion Criteria

Throughout the 90-minute professional discussion, the assessor will review the apprentice's competence in all of the pass criteria outlined below as a minimum, therefore apprentices should prepare for the professional discussion by considering how the criteria can be met.

A distinction may be achieved if all of the pass criteria are achieved as well as all of the distinction criteria from sections 1, 3, 6, 7 and 9.
