Working as an Early Years Educator

The broad purpose of the occupation is to provide high quality early education and care to children. Through an evidence-based approach, they provide opportunities and learning experiences for all children, including those with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND).

In their daily work, an employee in this occupation interacts with children, parents, carers, colleagues, and wider multi-agency professionals such as health visitors, early help services, social workers, and speech and language therapists. This occupation is found in a range of maintained and private, voluntary, and independent settings such as full day care, children's centres and pre-schools.
