Overview of the standard

Operations managers undertake leadership and management duties with teams and senior managers where there is a requirement to ensure that teams carry out their role to meet organisational goals.

An employee in this occupation will be responsible for leading and managing their operational function which includes accountability for developing team members, managing projects, planning, and reviewing workloads and resources, delivering operational plans, resolving problems, and building relationships internally and externally.

Roles/occupations may include area manager, department manager, general manager, operations manager, regional manager and specialist manager.

The programme's structure

Your apprentice will be placed in a role for typically 24 months during which they will be supported while on-programme by their tutor. Their tutor will review the progress of the apprentice during the 24 months against the standard to ensure they are prepared for the end-point assessment.
