A NOTE FROM THE PUBLISHER

Dear Friends,

It is always an exciting time for Macmillan Children’s Books when the printed stocklist arrives and we see the publishing programme of the new year in all its glory, variety and richness. It is with great pride, that I share our 2023 publishing with you.

Our big fiction middle-grade debut title of the year is Greenwild. Won as part of a hard-fought auction, it is a compelling adventure which takes place in a land of green magic, full of fantastical plants and magic-weaving Botanists. A truly extraordinary novel by debut author, Pari Thomson, Greenwild will be illustrated by Elisa Paganelli, whose work is well recognised from our Adventures on Trains series. Do read it!

The YA Market is booming and our YA title of the year is Promise Boys by Nick Brooks; a trailblazing, blockbuster mystery for fans of Angie Thomas, Jason Reynolds and Karen McManus. It is a story about three teen boys of colour who must investigate their Principal’s murder, to clear their own names. This is our biggest global YA launch and it is not to be missed.

When Marcus Rashford and Carl Anka won the Book of the Year for You Are a Champion at the Nibbies, it reminded us of the vital importance of supporting every child on their reading journey and how we were brought together to donate thousands of copies, across the UK. Thank you for working with us on this campaign. We are pleased to announce that we will have new, bestselling books from Marcus this year, including more Breakfast Club Adventures, written with Alex Falase-Koya. We also have exciting new gift titles publishing this year including My Heart was a Tree; a stunning collection of new stories and poems by Michael Morpurgo, illustrated by Yuval Zommer, as well as a brand new official Winnie-the-Pooh story, inspired by one of A.A. Milne’s classic poems. Winnie-the-Pooh and Me by Jeanne Willis features favourite characters from the Hundred Acre Wood beautifully illustrated by Mark Burgess in the style of E.H. Shepard.

Finally, we can’t quite believe that it is 30 years since Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler’s first picture book, A Squash and a Squeeze, was published. Their stories have now been central to children’s lives for a generation and we have lots of exciting plans to help everyone celebrate throughout the year. And, at last, we can all officially learn to draw the Gruffalo with Axel’s new how-to guide!

As always, a big thank you for the support you give us at MCB and to our authors and illustrators, for recommending and selling our books. We wish you a successful 2023.

Thank you and all the very best to you all,

Belinda Ioni Rasmussen

We are so excited to be publishing two titles in a new preschool picture book series about a little owl with big ideas, based on the animated Odo series shown on Milkshake! These charming picture books capture all the warmth and humour of the TV episodes and feature themes of building self-confidence and empathy, all in a unique, beautifully-crafted forest setting.

Odo is the No. 1 rated show every day in its slot among all UK terrestrial kids' channels, and further titles are set to follow as we adapt the most popular TV show episodes into engaging picture books.
We’re thrilled to be celebrating 30 years of Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler in 2023. Julia and Axel are of course the world-famous author-illustrator partnership behind children’s classics such as The Gruffalo, Room on the Broom and A Squash and a Squeeze, whose books have sold over 75 million copies worldwide.

To celebrate this special milestone, there will be year-round publicity targeting print, radio and TV as well as events and festival appearances. A national ‘Draw Along with Axel’ campaign alongside publication of How to Draw the Gruffalo and Friends in May will be a key part of this anniversary year, with supporting POS available for bookshops and libraries.

The anniversary year will kick off in January with the publication of a gold-foiled 30th anniversary edition of A Squash and a Squeeze, followed by a novelty board book in March. In May, How to Draw the Gruffalo and Friends will be joined by hardback reissues of all eight of Julia and Axel’s classic picture books. In June, the celebrations continue with a 20th anniversary edition of The Snail and the Whale, with more exciting releases planned for the autumn!

ORGANISING AUTHOR AND ILLUSTRATOR VISITS
Having an author or illustrator come to visit your school or library is a great way to bring books to life for children. You can write to any of the authors and illustrators published by Macmillan Children’s Books c/o Children’s Publicity Department.

Author visits require thorough planning, so you will need to contact us about your chosen author well in advance. Your letter should include a few dates for the author to select from, the ages of children attending and the type of event you would like to have.

A book makes a great souvenir of the day and authors are happy to sign them after the event has finished. Contact your usual supplier to arrange books for sale at the event and circulate a note to parents in advance so that that children can bring in some money.
