Customer information notice (CIN)	19

All information including the Terms and Conditions of your plan will be provided in English.

The information and figures quoted in this booklet are correct as at June 2023 but may change.

1. Introduction

This booklet will give you details of the Income Insurance plan. It is designed in a way that allows us to explain the product to you in simple terms. There will be more specific rules in your terms and conditions booklet, which you should read carefully.

Income Protection

Income protection is a type of insurance that pays you a regular income if you can no longer work due to an injury or illness. Its aim is to replace some of your earned income once any state benefits are taken into account, so you could still maintain the lifestyle you are used to.

If you are in full-time employment or you are self-employed and earn an income, you can take out an income protection plan.

What Is Income Insurance

Income Insurance is the product name for our income protection plan. It provides a replacement income, also called incapacity benefit, if you cannot work as a result of an illness or injury.

After a certain period, known as the deferred period, you receive the incapacity benefit to replace some of your income while you are off work.

Suitability snapshot

Income Insurance might suit you if you:

- ✓ are 18 to 54 years of age and in full-time employment or are self-employed;
- ✓ want to protect some of your income until you are age 65 if you cannot work because of an illness or injury (please see page 14 for more details on the limits);
- ✓ want a product that pays you a regular income if you cannot work because of an illness or injury, after a certain amount of time (deferred period);
- ✓ want the option to top up your cover at a later date;
- ✓ want your cover to continue, no matter how many claims you make;
- ✓ want to take advantage of potential income tax relief.

Income Insurance might not suit you if you:

- ✗ are unemployed;
- ✗ want protection against being made unemployed;
- ✗ want cover that continues after you are age 65;
- ✗ want a lump-sum payment for certain illnesses;
- ✗ need a life cover plan, with added family benefits;
- ✗ need a product with a cash-in value; and
- ✗ need more cover than is available with Income Insurance.

In any of these situations, please speak to your financial adviser about our other plans that might suit your needs better.

2. Income Insurance

How Income Insurance Works

We have designed Income Insurance to be as flexible as possible, and its aim is to suit your income protection needs. Below are some points to help you decide if this cover is right for you.

- > You decide how much cover you need based on your current earnings, the deferred period you want (either 13, 26 or 52 weeks), how long you need the benefit to be paid for, and how long you want the cover for.
- > You make regular payments to keep the cover in force.
- > We provide cover until your plan ends, no matter how many claims you make.
- > You must tell us when an illness or an injury stops you working.
- > We pay you a monthly income from the end of your chosen deferred period for as long as you are eligible (see below regarding deferred periods).
- > If you are in hospital for more than seven days in a row during the deferred period, you may be able to receive hospitalisation benefit (see page 14 for details on hospital benefit).

Deferred Period

When you take out this plan, you choose a deferred period of 13, 26 or 52 weeks. This is the continuous amount of time you need to be off work before we will pay the incapacity benefit.

Please see the table on this page outlining when you should send in your claim form, depending on your deferred period.

Deferred Period	Send in your claim form NO LATER THAN	AFTER you become unable to work as a result of illness or injury
13 weeks	8 weeks
26 weeks	16 weeks
52 weeks	30 weeks

You must be totally unable to carry out the main duties of your normal job for this cover and you must not be doing any other work. An injury or illness must be the reason why you cannot work. Our Chief Medical Officer must be satisfied with the evidence you provide. The main duties of your job are those you normally need to carry out and which cannot reasonably be left out or altered.

How much cover do I need?

Your financial adviser will help you decide how much cover you need. That cover should reflect your income. The benefit you receive must be set at a level which makes you no better off than if you were receiving an income. This is so that you have an incentive to return to work.

In general, the most cover you can have at any one time (including that provided under other income protection plans and continuing income from your job or pension) is:

- > €250,000 a year; or
- > 75% of your total yearly earnings; less
- > any state benefits for disability (except benefits for children) and other forms of income you may have. Please see page 14 for more details about this,

whichever is less.

You should review your cover regularly to make sure it continues to meet your needs. Your financial adviser can help you with this.

Increasing your cover amount

You can increase your cover with our 20% top up option.

On each third anniversary of your plan, you can top up your Income Insurance benefit by 20% without having to give us any extra evidence of your health, job, residence or pastimes. You can choose to top up your cover five times, but the top up limit of 20% is always based on your original amount of cover. If you do not choose to increase your cover on two occasions when we offer the chance to top up, we will not offer you the top-up again.

You cannot top up:

- > within five years of the end date of your plan;
- > after the 15th anniversary of your plan;
- > during a period of disability which lasts a week or more;
- > within six months of a period of disability; or
- > while you are receiving any benefit under your Income Insurance plan.

Any increases to your Income Insurance, as a result of top-ups or indexation, must stay within the maximum limits allowed (please see page 14 for details). If we apply a rating or exclusion to your original plan, this same rating or exclusion will apply to any increase in benefit under this option.

The overall maximum amount of cover we will provide is €250,000 a year.

Example of 20% top up option

Original amount of Income Insurance:	€50,000
First top up (available on the third anniversary)	€10,000 = 20% of €50,000
New Income Insurance benefit amount	€60,000
Next top-up (available on the sixth anniversary)	€10,000 = 20% of €50,000 which was the original amount of cover
New Income Insurance benefit amount	€70,000
Next top-up (available on the ninth anniversary)	€10,000 = 20% of €50,000 which was the original amount of cover
New Income Insurance benefit amount	€80,000

Indexation

As well as the top-up option above, one year after you start your Income Insurance plan, we will offer you the chance to have your cover automatically increased. This is called 'indexation'. If you choose this option, your cover will automatically increase each year by 5% or in line with the consumer price index, whichever is higher, without you needing to provide medical evidence. The payments you make will increase by more than this to reflect the cost of the increased cover, based on your age at the time of the increase. If you do not take these options when we offer them, you will need to provide evidence of your health for any future increase.

Escalation

With escalation if we pay a claim for incapacity benefit, we will increase the incapacity benefit amount paid on the first and every anniversary of the date we start paying. The amount of the increase will be:

- > within the yearly rate of increase in the consumer price index for the last year;
 - or
 - > 5%;
- whichever is lower.

Important points about Income Insurance

- > If you stop making your regular payments, you will no longer be protected, and any money paid will not be refunded to you.
- > You cannot cash in your plan; it is not a savings plan.
- > It is very important that you review your plan benefits against your current earnings, as they may not continue to meet your needs.
- > At the time of a claim, your earnings must be above the level that justifies the amount of cover you have chosen. If not, you will receive a reduced benefit. In this case, we will not refund any part of the payments you have made. Please see page 14 for more details.
- > You can claim income tax relief on your payments to this plan. Please see page 10 for more details.

We will not pay claims or will reduce the amount paid on a claim in certain circumstances – for example if you have not fully answered the questions in your application honestly and with reasonable care, including the questions about your health, occupation, smoking habits, financial circumstances, hobbies or pastimes. You will see a summary of these situations in the ‘Guide to making a claim’ section of this booklet on page 15.

3. Income Insurance – the cost

Guaranteed Payments

We guarantee the regular payments you make will stay the same for the term of your plan (unless you change the level of cover).

If you change the level of your cover, your payment will increase just to reflect the change in the level of cover. The rates we charge will stay the same for the term of your plan.

This means you will always know how much you will pay for your current level of cover.

Income Insurance - The cost

The cost of cover depends on:

- > your age (as you get older the chance of you being ill increases);
- > your occupation (some occupations carry a higher risk of accidents and illness than others and it is easier to return to work after an illness or accident in some occupations – see across for a detailed explanation);
- > whether you smoke;
- > your deferred period and the age at which your cover ends; and
- > your health.

The payments you make cover:

- > the cost of setting up the plan, including sales and commission costs;
- > the cost of providing your incapacity benefit; and
- > ongoing costs.

You must make your payments by direct debit every month, every three months, twice a year, or once a year.

We will collect any levies or taxes imposed by the government. The current government levy on life assurance payments is 1% (June 2023).

Cost of cover and your occupation

Your job will influence the cost of your cover and the options available. This is because some jobs are more dangerous than others. For example, a bank clerk will pay less for cover than a carpenter because of the increased risk of accident involved in the carpenter's job.

We will also take account of how fit you have to be to do particular work. For example, you will need to be fitter to do manual work than you would to do a desk job. As a result, some options will not be available to certain occupations. For example, in some occupations, cover cannot continue after you are 55 or 60 and the deferred period must be 26 or 52 weeks.

Your financial adviser will tell you what your options are based on your current job.

We may refuse to provide cover for certain occupations.

Can I get tax relief on my payments?

Under current tax law (June 2023), payments to this Income Insurance plan are eligible for full income tax relief at your marginal rate of income tax. The maximum amount of payments you can claim tax relief on is limited to 10% of your total income for the tax year of tax assessment.

Your total income is any earned income, as adjusted for tax purposes. We will give you a permanent health insurance certificate, which you will normally need to get your tax relief. You will need to check if you are eligible for this tax relief.

Can the regular payments change?

No, your regular payments are guaranteed to stay the same for the term of your plan. However, if you top up your Income Insurance or choose indexation, your regular payments will increase only to reflect the cost of your increased cover.

This will only happen if you choose a top up or indexation on your plan.

4. A guide to making a claim

At Irish Life we are committed to taking care of claims as quickly as possible in a professional, polite, sensitive and sympathetic way.

If you have to claim incapacity benefit due to illness or injury which prevents you from working for more than your chosen deferred period, and which results in you losing earnings, take a look below at the best way to go about it.

To claim incapacity benefit, you must do the following:

- > You need to fill in a claim form (your financial adviser will get the claim form for you or you can get one from our customer service team).
- > You must get your doctor to fill in a medical certificate, which we will provide (you will have to pay any fees your doctor charges for this).
- > You must give us evidence of your earnings immediately before your illness or injury. If you are employed, this evidence must be a P60 and a statement from your employer. If you are self-employed, this evidence must be copies of your accounts, tax computations and income tax assessments for the three accounting years immediately before the start of the deferred period.

- > You must provide evidence of other insurance, pensions and state benefits.
- > You will also need to have a medical examination or other specialist assessment, which we will pay for. Someone acting for us may also visit or phone you, for example, a nurse or health claims specialist. When we receive your claim, we and our Chief Medical Officer will consider your illness or injury and the main duties of your normal job. We will then assess your ability to carry out your normal job based on all the information we have available. We will decide whether to accept your claim based on all the medical and financial information we have, as long as you meet the definition of disability as shown in the policy terms and conditions.

Your incapacity benefit payments

When will my benefit payments start?

This depends on what deferred period you have chosen. The deferred period is the continuous amount of time you have to be off work due to an illness or injury before we begin to pay the incapacity benefit. Your deferred period can be either 13, 26 or 52 weeks, depending on your job. We will not pay any benefit until the end of this period, so the longer the deferred period, the cheaper the cover.

We will make the first payment of your incapacity benefit one month after the end of the deferred period. We will backdate this payment to the end of the deferred period. After that your incapacity benefit will be paid to you every month for the month just gone.

If you are in hospital for more than seven days in a row during the deferred period, we will pay you 'hospitalisation benefit' for each day you spend in hospital. We will do this from the eighth day up to the end of:

- > your deferred period; or
- > your 91st day in hospital;

whichever is earlier.

Each day's hospitalisation benefit is equal to your yearly incapacity benefit divided by 365. We will not pay any hospitalisation benefit in the circumstances set out on page 15.

When will my benefit payments end?

We will pay the incapacity benefit until:

- > you return to work;
- > you reach the age at which your cover ends;
- > you die;
- > we decide that you are fit enough to do your normal work; or
- > you take up your own or another job and fail to tell us;

whichever happens first.

While you are receiving the incapacity benefit, you must tell us if you plan to return to work part-time or to take up any other paid work. If you do not tell us, all benefit payments and cover under the plan will end.

While you are receiving the incapacity benefit, you must tell us if you plan to return to work part-time or to take up any other paid work. If you do not tell us, all benefit payments and cover under the plan will end.

If you become unemployed, all your cover will end immediately. If you become unemployed during the deferred period, all your cover will end immediately and we will not pay a claim. You must tell us immediately if you become unemployed.

Limitations to your incapacity benefit claim

You will receive the amount of incapacity benefit you are insured for, within the following benefit limits. The maximum benefit you can receive is:

- > €250,000 a year; or
- > 75% of your yearly earnings; less
 - any continuing income from work or any other source (not including investment income);
 - any pension payments;
 - any state disability or other benefits (except benefits for children); and
 - any regular payments from any other income protection plan or similar insurance;
 whichever is less.

From time to time during any claim, we will check to make sure your benefit stays within these limits. The limits aim to make sure you have a financial incentive to return to work. We will not refund any payments if, as a result of these limits, we pay less than the amount of incapacity benefit you have asked for.

What earnings do you take into account?

If you are employed, we take account of your yearly salary before deductions for PAYE assessment purposes, including overtime and regular bonuses, for the 12 months up to the date your deferred period starts.

If you are self-employed, we take account of your average 'net annual profit' (your actual profit less any allowable expenses), based on your business accounts for the three years ending on the most recent accounting date before the start of the deferred period. The profit we use for this calculation is the profit before any adjustments, which need to be made for tax purposes.

Taxation and claim benefits

Your incapacity benefit will be treated as normal income and so is assessed for income tax, PRSI and the Universal Social Charge. We will pay the benefit direct to you. We will take any income tax, PRSI and Universal Social Charge in the same way as an employer would take them from a normal income. Hospitalisation benefit is also assessed for tax.

Remember that you can claim income tax relief on any payments into this plan. Please see page 11 for more details.

Situations where you would not pay my claim benefit

We would not pay incapacity benefit in the situations listed below:

- > We may refuse to pay a claim or reduce the amount to be paid if you have given incorrect information or did not tell us something in response to a question in your application that would have affected our assessment of your application when you first took out the plan. You must, in your application, answer our questions honestly and with reasonable care, including the questions about your health, occupation, smoking habits, financial circumstances, hobbies and pastimes. If you do not and you make a claim, we may not pay your benefit or may reduce the benefit. We will send you a summary of the information in the main completed application for cover. You should check this to make sure that you have answered all the questions accurately.

- > If the injury has been caused directly or indirectly by war, riot, revolution, civil commotion or any similar event or by you taking part in a criminal act.
- > If the condition was self-inflicted or caused directly or indirectly by you drinking alcohol (if there is a history of alcohol abuse) or taking illegal drugs, or if you failed to follow reasonable medical advice, medically recommended therapies, treatment or surgery.
- > If the injury was caused by you taking part in any of the following hazardous pursuits: abseiling, bobsleighbing, boxing, caving, flying (taking part in any flying activity, other than as a passenger in a commercially licensed aircraft on a regular public airline), hang-gliding, horse racing (but not general equestrian activities), motor-car and motor-cycle racing or sports, mountaineering, mixed martial arts, parachuting, potholing, powerboat racing, rock climbing or scuba diving.
- > If, at the time of a claim, you are living outside Ireland or the United Kingdom. If this is the case, we will only pay incapacity benefit for up to 13 weeks in any 12-month period, and for 39 weeks in total over the lifetime of the plan.
- > We will not pay hospitalisation benefit if you are in hospital for mental illness, a psychiatric disorder, alcoholism or any cosmetic surgery or surgery that is not essential.

We will not pay this benefit if you lose your job or become unemployed. If you are receiving a claim and you become unemployed, the claim will end.

Returning to work

While you are receiving the incapacity benefit under the plan you must tell us if you plan to return to work part-time or to take up any other paid work. If you do not tell us, all benefit payments and cover under the plan will end.

Returning to work part-time or to a position with lower pay

If, after a period when you were being paid incapacity benefit, you return to work part-time or to a lower-paid job, we will still pay part of the benefit if we are satisfied that you are still not able to do your normal job.

It is important that you discuss any work opportunities with us before you return to work. In these circumstances, we will reduce the incapacity benefit we pay by the amount of your new earnings.

Making another claim once you are back at work

The terms of your plan are not affected by the number of claims you make. If you have received incapacity benefit and within six months of returning to work you claim again as a result of the same injury or illness, the deferred period will not apply.

However, you must have started to make your regular payments again when you returned to work.

A. Information about the policy

1. Make sure the policy meets your needs!

The Income Insurance plan is a regular payment protection plan which provides income protection insurance cover. The plan provides a regular income incapacity benefit if you become unable to work due to illness or injury.

Before the first anniversary of your plan and again before the second anniversary of your plan, we will offer you the opportunity to increase the amount of your incapacity benefit. This option is called indexation. Where you accept the indexation option, the level of benefits will automatically increase each year. The payment you make will also increase each year. Your cover will automatically increase each year by 5% or in line with the consumer price index, whichever is higher. The payments you make may increase by more than this to reflect the increase in your age and the cost of increased cover. If you do not take the indexation option when offered, you will need to provide evidence of health for any future increase.

You are entering into a commitment to pay a regular payment over a relatively long term.

Unless you are fully satisfied as to the nature of this commitment having regard to your needs, resources and circumstances, you should not enter into this commitment.

Your Financial Adviser must indicate whether paragraph a) or paragraph b) below applies.

- a) This plan replaces in whole or in part an existing plan with Irish Life, or with another insurer, which has been or is to be cancelled or reduced. Your Financial Adviser will advise you as to the financial consequences of such replacement and of possible financial loss as a result. You will be asked at the beginning of your application form to confirm this in writing. Please ensure that you have completed this section of the form and that you are satisfied with the explanations provided by your Financial Adviser before you complete the rest of the application form.
- b) This plan does not replace in whole or in part an existing plan with Irish Life or with any other insurer which has been or is to be cancelled or reduced.

2. What happens if you want to cash in the policy early or stop paying premiums

The plan does not acquire a cash or surrender value at any stage.

If you stop making payments, all cover under the plan will end and we may refund a portion of your most recent monthly payment so that you will only be charged for the number of days that have passed since that payment. Any payments before your most recent payment will not be refunded.

3. What are the projected benefits under the policy

The following payment and benefit details are for a typical Income Insurance plan. The figures will obviously vary based on each individual's personal details and choice of protection benefits. The payment quoted below is correct as at November 2022. Figures for your specific plan details will be shown in your customer information notice in your welcome pack.

The figures below are based on the following details.

Protection Benefits	Incapacity benefit cover of €2,000 per month with escalation in claim of 5% each year and a deferred period of 13 weeks.
Lives Covered:	Male, aged 37 next birthday, occupational class 1, non-smoker.
Payments:	€66.54 per month payable by direct debit. The payment is guaranteed (see section A5).
Term	The term of the plan is up to age 60.

All figures are exclusive of the 1% government levy.

The plan provides protection benefits up until the expiry date of the plan, which is stated on the plan schedule. The plan does not acquire a cash or surrender value at any stage.

5. Are the returns guaranteed and can the premium be reviewed?

The payment on this plan is guaranteed. Your regular payments will not change during the term of your plan as long as your chosen benefits remain the same.

If you choose to increase your incapacity benefit in the future through the indexation option offered, your payment will increase solely to reflect the cost of the increased amount of cover.

If you choose to increase your incapacity benefit in the future through the top-up option offered, your payment will increase in line with the payment you would be charged if you were taking out a new plan for the increased amount.

6. Can the policy be cancelled or amended by the insurer?

We may cancel your plan if you stop making payments.

You must provide any information or evidence which we need to administer the plan.

If we receive evidence that your date of birth as shown on your application form for this plan is incorrect, we will adjust the benefits appropriately.

We may end your cover and refuse to pay a claim, or reduce the amount paid on a claim if you do not give us information (or if you give us incorrect information) in response to the questions in your application regarding an illness or condition that will affect our assessment of your application for this plan. If that information is not true or if we do not receive all relevant information required by the questions in your application, we may end your cover and refuse to pay any claim, or reduce the amount paid on a claim.

If we end your cover for this reason, you will lose all rights under the plan and we may not refund your payments. We will send you a copy of the main application form that you have filled in for us.

We will pay no benefit if you are unemployed at the time you apply for incapacity benefit. You should therefore cancel your plan if you become unemployed.

We may end your cover and refuse to pay a claim if you don't give us information (or if you give us incorrect information) that would affect our assessment of your application for incapacity benefit at the time you complete a claim application.

If you are receiving incapacity benefit and go back to work or take up alternative employment without telling us, we may end your cover and refuse to pay further benefits.

The plan will end on your death.

7. Information on taxation issues

Any taxes or levies imposed by the government will be collected by Irish Life and passed directly to the Revenue Commissioners.

This plan is a permanent health insurance plan which is approved by the Revenue Commissioners. Under current Irish law (December 2022), you are entitled to claim tax relief on payments made into an approved permanent health insurance plan – up to a maximum of 10% of your total income for the year of tax assessment. Your 'total income' is income from all sources, as adjusted for tax purposes.

If you are married or have a registered civil partner and are assessed jointly with your partner, the upper limit allowed is 10% of your joint total incomes. Your employer may be willing to deduct the cost of this benefit from your salary. If this happens, you will obtain income tax relief immediately. If payments are not made by salary deduction, you can apply for income tax relief by contacting your local Revenue tax office. Irish Life will provide you with a permanent health insurance certificate which is normally required to obtain your tax relief.

In the event of a claim your benefit will be treated as normal employment income and as such is liable for tax. When we make a benefit payment, we will deduct an amount for income tax, PRSI and the Universal Social Charge which are payable under the PAYE system. If we do not have your certificate of tax credits, this can result in the higher rate of tax being deducted.

If payments are made by anyone other than the legal owner of the plan, for example from a company or business account, there may be other tax implications.

Please contact your Financial Adviser or Irish Life if you do not fully understand the likely tax treatment of any benefits payable in connection with your Income Insurance plan. However, we recommend that you seek independent tax advice in respect of your own specific circumstances.
